Credentials

Credentials for Georgia Tech home football games are issued to working media only and should be requested as early as possible. Requests are honored from sports editors of daily newspapers, network affiliate television station sports directors, and websites that have a corresponding publication and/or affiliation with a nationally recognized media entity.

Requests from non-daily newspapers, periodicals, radio stations and non-affiliated websites or blogs will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Credentials will not be mailed, but can be shipped if a FedEx number is provided and time permits. Otherwise, credentials will be left at Media Will Call, which is located at the main ticket office on the north end of Bobby Dodd Stadium.

Requests can be faxed e-mailed to Mike Stamus (mstamus@athletics.gatech.edu).

Media Will Call

Georgia Tech Ticket Office, corner of Techwood Drive and Bobby Dodd Way.

Media Parking

A limited number of media parking spaces at various lots on campus are available. Please include parking requests along with credential requests. Parking passes will be e-mailed.

Road Credentials

If you would like to cover Georgia Tech on the road, please let Dean Buchan know well in advance and a credential request will be made for you.

The Press Box

Located in the west stands of Bobby Dodd Stadium, accessible via Gate 1 or Gate 4. Take the press elevator to Level 4.

Wireless

Wireless internet access is available in the pressbox. Log-in information is available on seating cards and is posted in the press box.

Live Statistics

Live stats (Gametracker) available via RamblinWreck.com, and via secured media website. Information posted in the press box.

Media Meals

There is a $5 charge (cash only) for the media buffet. Following each game, pizza will be available to media members.

Weekly Press Conference

Paul Johnson will meet with the media, generally on Tuesday beginning at 11:30 a.m. On the week of a Thursday night game, Johnson's press conference will be held on Monday at 11:30 a.m. There will be no press conference the week of Tech's open date.

Johnson's weekly press conferences are held in the Goldsmith Conference Room (located in the Edge Building). No players will be available at that time. Media are welcome to dine in the GTAA dining hall following the press conference.

Paul Johnson's Interviews

Head Coach Paul Johnson is available to the media at the following times:

- Following every practice on Mondays and Wednesdays.
- Following every game.
- Weekly press conferences (see above).
- Weekly ACC Coaches Teleconference, every Wednesday (see schedule at left).
- At his weekly radio show, Wednesday's 7-8 p.m.
- All other interviews should be requested to Dean Buchan at least 24 hours in advance. Most of these interviews will take place between 1 and 2 p.m.

Player Interviews

Yellow Jacket players are available after every practice on Mondays and Tuesdays. All player requests must be made to Dean Buchan or Mike DeGeorge before practice concludes. Players who do not practice will not be available. Players are also available after every game upon request.

All other player interview requests should be directed to Dean Buchan or Mike DeGeorge.

Covering Practices

Practices during the season are closed, although the first 20-30 minutes Monday-Wednesday are open to television media wanting to shoot video. If planning to shoot video, please let Dean Buchan or Mike DeGeorge know in advance.

Post-Practice Interviews

Paul Johnson and requested players will meet with the media on Callaway Plaza, located on the north side of Bobby Dodd Stadium, at the conclusion of practice.

Postgame Interviews

Following home games, Paul Johnson and selected players are available in the Edge Center museum following a cooling-down period. The visiting team will hold its press conference on the south end of the stadium, in the Georgia Tech weight room.

Following road games, Johnson and requested players will be available following a cooling-down period at a site determined by the home team. Please make your requests for Yellow Jacket players to Dean Buchan or Mike DeGeorge prior to the conclusion of the game.

NFL Scouts

NFL scouts can receive credentials and access to the pressbox. The written (or e-mail) request must be made at least two weeks in advance to Mike Stamus (mstamus@athletics.gatech.edu). No parking pass is provided to scouts. Seats are assigned on a space-available basis, and access to the field during team warm-ups is permitted.

Directions To Bobby Dodd Stadium

GEORGIA TECH FOOTBALL ON THE AIRWAVES

Georgia Tech/IMG Sports Radio Network

Rick Strom, the former Georgia Tech and NFL quarterback, handles the color analysis for the Georgia Tech/IMG Sports Radio Network's broadcasts of Yellow Jacket football. Strom enters his ninth season behind the microphone.

At press time, a search was underway for a play-by-play announcer. Wes Durham, who called Georgia Tech football and basketball for more than 18 years, left that post in June.

Miller Pope is the producer for the majority of Georgia Tech radio broadcasts.

Pregame coverage begins two hours before kickoff with "Yellow Jacket Countdown," featuring game previews, live guests and former players and continues to live play-by-play for the next four hours.

For a complete list of radio affiliates, visit RamblinWreck.com and look for "Multimedia/RadioTV".

Georgia Tech Football With Paul Johnson

The weekly TV show airs each week on regional carriers Comcast Sports Southeast and Fox SportsSouth. The half-hour show previews the upcoming game in a fast-paced format vs. reviewing the prior game. Please check local listings for air times on CSS and FSS.

The Coach Paul Johnson Call-In Show

Head coach Paul Johnson's weekly radio show airs for 13 weeks during the football season, generally on Wednesdays from 7-8 p.m.

At press time the location of the show had not been determined.

Please check RamblinWreck.com for location, dates and time.

Johnson takes live and phone call questions from fans, review the last game and look ahead to the one upcoming.

For a list of affiliates carrying Coach Johnson's radio show, visit RamblinWreck.com (look for "Multimedia/RadioTV").

Television Replays

Georgia Tech games are televised on a tape-delay basis on Comcast Sports Southeast (CSS). Each game airs the following Tuesday nights (check local listings) on CSS.

BOBBY DODD STADIUM at HISTORIC GRANT FIELD

>>> INTRODUCTION

>>> 2012 REVIEW

>>> RECORDS

>>> HISTORY

>>> RESULTS

Georgia Tech's storied football facility has been a cornerstone of college football for 100 years. Cozily nestled amid Atlanta's skyscrapers, Bobby Dodd Stadium at Historic Grant Field is easily one of the nation's most unique settings for college football.

Originally built in 1913 by members of the Georgia Tech student body, Bobby Dodd Stadium at Historic Grant Field is the oldest on-campus stadium in NCAA Division I-A (FBS).

This fall, Georgia Tech celebrates the 100th anniversary of Grant Field.

Georgia Tech's football facility was known as Grant Field until April of 1988, when the Georgia State Board of Regents voted to add the name Bobby Dodd Stadium in honor of the legendary coach who guided the Rambling Wreck to its most illustrious football era. A member of the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame, Dodd compiled a 165-64-8 record from 1945-66, and tutored 21

All-Americans as he led Tech to 13 bowl trips during his 22-year stay as head coach. Dodd served as Tech's director of athletics from 1951-76 and then worked as a consultant for the alumni association until his death in 1988 for a 57-year association with the Institute.

The name change was the first for the facility since it was named Hugh Inman Grant Field in 1914 after a gift from John W. Grant, a member of the Tech Board of Trustees and a well-known Atlanta merchant. The Grant family did not give the land on which Grant Field is built. However, they did give the initial $15,000 used in 1913 to build the first permanent concrete stands on the west side of the field. In gratitude for the gift, the Board of Trustees named the field Hugh Inman Grant Field in memory of Grant's deceased son.

The students who built Grant Field more than 100 years ago wouldn't recognize the home of Georgia Tech football if they saw it now. Not only has the skyline around the stadium changed dramatically, but the facility has steadily grown and improved during its rich history.

Tech actually began playing football on this site in 1905, but in 1913, the original concrete West Stands were largely built by Tech students and seated 5,600. The concrete East Stands were completed in time for the 1924 season. A year later, the South Stands were finished, bringing the seating capacity to approximately 30,000.

In 1947, the West Stands were rebuilt, which raised the capacity to 40,000, and a new press box was added. The North Stands were erected in 1958 to bring the seating to 44,105. A second deck was added to the East side in 1962, increasing capacity to 53,300. The facility was expanded again in 1967, when the West Stands were double-decked to bring capacity to 58,121. That project also included new press and photo levels, including an elevator.

Following the 1985 season, the historic South Stands, which formed the familiar U-shape on North Avenue, were razed. In their place is the William C. Wardlaw Center, a multi-purpose facility for Georgia Tech's athletic and academic departments that was opened in 1988. Seating capacity was reduced to 46,000.

A major renovation was completed prior to the 1992 season with the construction of the Bill Moore Student Success Center behind the West Stands, as well as the addition of 32 executive suites, the renovation of the President's Box and press level and the addition of the Roy Richards Festival concourse area under the West Stands.

Natural grass returned to Grant Field in 1995 after 24 seasons with artificial turf. The field was originally surfaced with Astroturf in 1971 and resurfaced in 1979, and then new artificial All-Pro Turf was installed in 1988.

The venerable stadium added another chapter to its storied history with a new look and an expanded capacity in 2003 when a two-year expansion and renovation raised capacity to 55,000 seats and added numerous amenities. The $75 million endeavor included the expansion and renovation of Bobby Dodd Stadium/Grant Field and the rebuilt Russ Chandler Stadium, Tech's 4,157-seat baseball facility.

The focal point of the project was the north end zone structure, which seats 15,678 in two levels and also includes 10 luxury suites and the Howard Ector Letterwinners Lounge. The complex also features the 7,000-square foot Kim King Football Locker Room, a 3,300-square foot players' lounge, the Jones Media Room, and coaches' offices that overlook Grant Field.

In addition to the rebuilt seating area, the lower east structure features 20 executive suites as well as 2,040 chair-backed club seats between the 25-yard lines and a private air-conditioned lounge for those patrons.

At the south end of Bobby Dodd Stadium, 2,970 seats were added in front of the Wardlaw Building, providing seating in the south end zone for the first time since 1985. The south end zone seating and the lower levels of the east and north stands form a three-sided bowl.

Construction began following the 2001 season, with the first phase completed for the 2002 season, when capacity was 43,719. The first phase saw the completion of the lower bowl seating in the south, east and north areas of the stadium.

A new natural grass playing surface and drainage system was installed, and the field was shifted approximately 30 feet to the north and 15 feet to the west. Program management was provided by Carter/Turner, a joint venture of Carter & Associates and Turner Construction, while HOK Sport was the project's architect.

Bobby Dodd Stadium/Grant Field is located at the heart of the Georgia Tech campus on Techwood Drive, bordered by North Avenue on the south and Bobby Dodd Way on the north.

Tech has hosted numerous crowds which have exceeded capacity, the largest of which was the 60,316 spectators for the Georgia game in 1973.

Georgia Tech continues to make improvements to the facility on a yearly basis. A new, larger video board and ribbon boards were installed just in time for the start of the 2009 season. Renovations were also done in 2009 on the Festival level of the west side and throughout the stadium.

In the 100 autumns since Grant Field was erected, legends from Clint Castleberry to George Morris to Joe Hamilton to Calvin Johnson have played here, and Paul Johnson joins coaching giants such as John Heisman and Bobby Dodd in patrolling the Grant Field sideline.

Four national title teams and 15 conference champions have showcased their skills on the Flats, and Grant Field was the site of one of the most famous games ever played, Tech's 222-0 win over Cumberland in 1916.

Today's Bobby Dodd Stadium seats 55,000 fans in a modern, comfortable facility that embraces the tradition that has made Tech's venerable stadium a cornerstone of college football for a century.

AT HISTORIC GRANT FIELD

BOBBY DODD STADIUM AT HISTORIC GRANT FIELD: HOME OF THE JACKETS SINCE 1913

“Here’s the exception to the Atlanta rule: One sporting venue that has stood the test of time. Georgia Tech’s stadium turns 100 this year, and it remains a landmark – hard by the Downtown Connector, in the shadow of Coca-Cola’s headquarters, one block from the Varsity... there’s no prettier setting for a night football game on anyone’s campus. And the memory of Dodd, coaching his clinical and cerebral Jackets while remaining seated at a card table on the sideline, is one of the enduring images of Atlanta sports.”

JOHN AND MARY BROCK FOOTBALL PRACTICE FACILITY

Opened in August 2011, the Georgia Tech football program has a multi-million-dollar indoor practice facility thanks to a commitment from Mary R. and John F. Brock III. The 88,000-square-foot facility is directly adjacent to Tech's outdoor practice fields and features a state-of-the-art 90-yard, artificial playing field and an elevated deck for guests and recruits.

GEORGIA TECH FOOTBALL

ONE OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S MOST UNIQUE AND EXCITING ATMOSPHERES...

... BEGINS WITH YELLOW JACKET ALLEY

The tradition of Yellow Jacket Alley dates to 1996 when various alumni groups were looking for a way to greet GT football players as they arrived from their hotel to the stadium on game day.

Two and a half hours before kickoff, fans line Brittain Drive as they anticipate the arrival of their Yellow Jackets.

The team exits its buses on the corner of 4th Street and Brittain Drive and follows the band, the Rambling Wreck and the cheerleaders through Yellow Jacket Alley and into Bobby Dodd Stadium.

"When I signed my letter of intent to play at Georgia Tech in the spring of 2007, I never could have imagined how much it would teach and change me. Of course you learn a great deal about your designated field of study, but it's the people around the school that make it a special place.

The support from everyone from coaches, professors, administrators, alumni, and other students makes it feel like a family and the love for the school is what brings us together. I feel very fortunate to have had the opportunity to play football at and attend such a special institution. It constantly pushed my limits, taught me how to handle failure, how to remain humble through success, and certainly gave me a great foundation to begin my career."

"I went to Georgia Tech because I knew I would get a world-class education, but even that label doesn't do a Tech degree justice. My degree has opened up incredible career opportunities, and its value goes well beyond the professional world. I've been blessed with the opportunity to be a part of two TV shows, the chance to have lunch with the commander of Apollo 13, and the privilege of shaking hands with President Obama -- all because of my Tech connections. If you want a degree that will prepare you to make a difference in the world, there's nowhere better than Georgia Tech."

"From day one on the Flats, head coach Paul Johnson taught us that team chemistry, discipline, and leadership were all elements that elevated winning teams to championship teams. After spending years in this environment and adopting his culture it should be no surprise that many of our athletes have gone on to very successful careers in business. Much like football, my business involves strategy, communication, and trust. I work with affluent families and businesses much like a head coach works with his staff and players. Together we identify strengths and weaknesses in a financial picture, establish our roles within the team, develop a game plan, and then work diligently to ensure that all parties involved are striving toward the same goals. Although I spent my collegiate career on the offensive side of the ball, my investment philosophy is that a strong defense is critical to sustaining wealth across multiple generations."

"One of the quotes I live by and read each and every morning is one by William Ward: 'Adversity causes some men to break, and others to break records.'

Words can't explain how much Georgia Tech prepared me for all of life's adversities -- from the rigorous academic curriculum, to the time intensive athletic demands, down to the daily toll of social pressures. I'm extremely grateful to have gone to such a prestigious academic institution where I received an invaluable education. It laid the foundation for my current career and future life accomplishments."

LIFE AFTER TECH

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

GIVING BACK TO ATLANTA AND GEORGIA TECH IN MANY WAYS

The Georgia Tech football program takes pride in giving back to its hometown of Atlanta and the Georgia Tech community in many ways. Members of the football team are involved in a variety of activities from Special Olympics to Cub Scout camps to food drives.

One of the Yellow Jackets' unique initiatives was teaming with the student government association for a free football clinic aimed at international students unfamiliar with the game of football. More than 100 Tech students from outside the United States spent a day with the Jackets this past spring, learning the basics of the game from head coach Paul Johnson and his players.

"The goal of the clinic is to help the international students understand the game of football a little better," Johnson said. "American Football is not as popular in other countries so we are trying to make their experience as a Georgia Tech student even better with the hopes of encouraging them to come out to games next fall and the years to come."

WHITE & GOLD

*Oh well it's up with the White and Gold
Down with the Red and Black
Georgia Tech is out for the victory
We'll drop the battle axe on Georgia's head
When we meet her, our team is sure to beat her Down on the old farm there will be no sound
Till our bow-wows rip through the air
When the battle is over, Georgia's team will be found
With the Yellow Jackets swarming around.*

THE RAMBLING WRECK

September 30, 1961 versus Rice. For the first time, the official Rambling Wreck car led the Georgia Tech football team onto Grant Field. It's happened at every home game since.

The event did not establish a new tradition at Georgia Tech, but it cemented one. The vehicle, a restored 1930 Model A Ford Sport Coupe, was Tech's first official Rambling Wreck car.

Since that time, the Rambling Wreck car has joined a much older tradition -- the Yellow Jacket -- as an official school mascot.

The term Rambling Wreck was first applied to a 1914 Ford owned by Floyd Field, Dean of Men. In the first published reference to the car as the "Rambling Wreck" in 1927, the Technique student newspaper spoke out against Field when he considered trading the car, but he did it anyway.

Tech officials decided in the late 1950s that the school needed an official car that would be known forever as the Rambling Wreck. Dean of Students James Dull began a search for a pre-1940 vintage model, and finally found one parked in front of his apartment building. The owner, Capt. Ted J. Johnson, a Delta Air Lines pilot, had just finished restoring the 1930 Ford Cabriolet Sport Coupe, which he intended to give to his son as a gift.

Johnson decided to let Tech have the car for $1,000 in May, 1961. He later returned the purchase price in the form of a contribution to the Alexander-Tharpe Fund, fulfilling a desire to go on record as having given the Rambling Wreck to Georgia Tech.

THE RAMBLIN' WRECK FIGHT SONG

*I'm a Ramblin' Wreck from Georgia Tech and a hell of an engineer,
A helluva, helluva, helluva, helluva, hell of an engineer,
Like all the jolly good fellows, I drink my whiskey clear,
I'm a Ramblin' Wreck from Georgia Tech and a hell of an engineer.
Oh, if I had a daughter, sir, I'd dress her in White and Gold,
And put her on the campus, to cheer the brave and bold.
But if I had a son, sir, I'll tell you what he'd do.
He would yell, "To Hell with Georgia," like his daddy used to do.
Oh, I wish I had a barrel of rum and sugar three thousand pounds,
A college bell to put it in and a clapper to stir it around.
I'd drink to all good fellows who come from far and near.
I'm a ramblin', gamblin', hell of an engineer.*

TRADITIONS

THE YELLOW JACKET

Conflicting accounts exist as to the origins and beginnings of the Yellow Jacket, but the nickname did not grow out of the familiar six-legged insect; rather, the insect mascot, known as "Buzz," grew out of the nickname.

The first known reference to Tech students as "Yellowjackets" appeared in the Atlanta Constitution in 1905 and came into common usage at that time. The name, spelled as one word, was first used to describe supporters who attended Tech athletic events, dressed in yellow coats and jackets. The actual mascot was conceived at a later, undetermined date.

Other nicknames which have applied to Tech teams include the Engineers; the Tecks, the first known nickname which was phased out around 1910; the Blacksmiths, common between 1902 and 1904; and the Golden Tornado, thought to be created by sportswriters when John Heisman led Tech to its first national title in 1917.

WHITE & GOLD

In the fall of 1891, before Georgia Tech organized a football team of its own, a game was scheduled between Auburn and Georgia. A rivalry was already established in baseball between Tech and Georgia, so Tech students were invited to the game to cheer, of course, for Auburn.

The students appointed a committee to recommend colors to be worn and cheers to be used at the game. The committee suggested white and gold, and about 200 students attended the game wearing those colors.

In 1893, when Georgia Tech's football team played Georgia for the first time, a group of young women from the Lucy Cobb Institute for Girls attended the game to cheer for Tech, dressed in white and gold.

THE FIGHT SONG

The Georgia Tech fight song grew out of an old folk ballad, "The Sons of the Gamboliers."

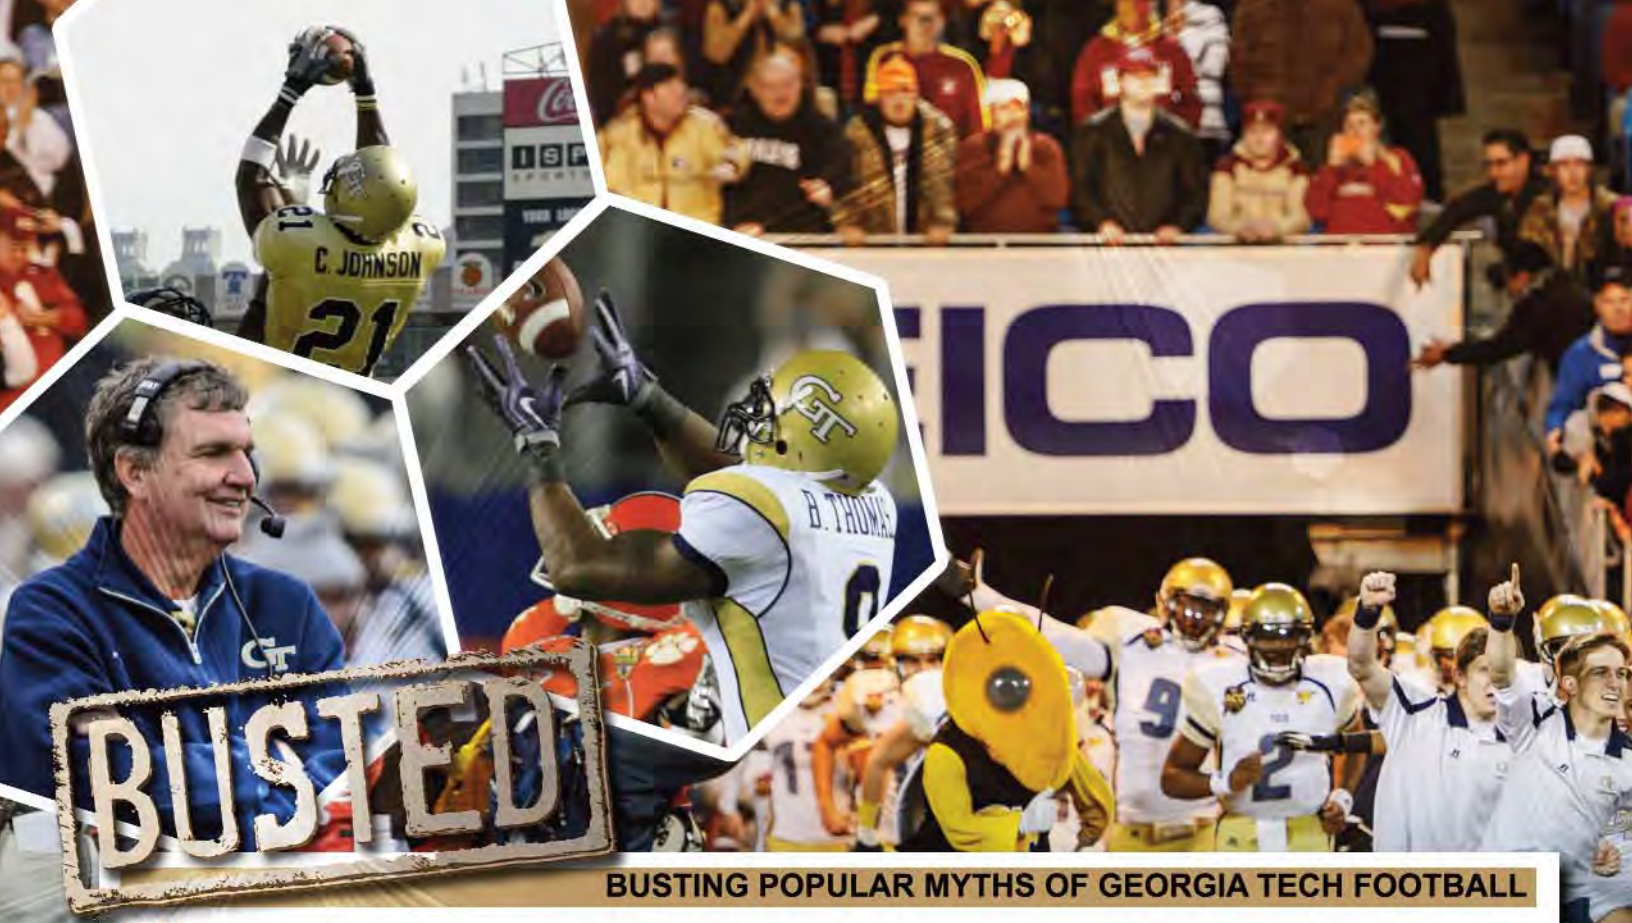

Howard D. Cutter, a member of Tech's first graduating class (Mechanical Engineering, 1892), wrote in the November-December 1942 issue of the Georgia Tech Alumnus that the "Ramblin' Wreck" had its origins during the first two years after Tech opened in 1888, inspired when the entire student body traveled to Athens to see Tech's baseball team defeat Georgia.

By the early 1900s, "Ramblin' Wreck" was an established tradition. The earliest existing published version of the song appeared in the Blueprint, the Institute's yearbook, in 1908.

In 1910, Michael A. Greenblatt, Tech's first bandmaster, discovered the band playing "Ramblin' Wreck" to the tune of "Sons of the Gamboliers," and made his first arrangement of the song in the form of a handwritten manuscript.

When Frank Roman succeeded Greenblatt as bandmaster in 1911, he wrote a new adaptation of "Ramblin' Wreck," accompanied by many trumpet flourishes, that became nationally known. His is the version that continues to be popular today.

The fame of the song spread to such proportions that in 1959 it was sung by Richard Nixon and Nikita Khrushchev at their historic face-to-face meeting in Moscow. In 1984, the law firm of Newton, Hopkins & Ormsby investigated the copyright of "Ramblin' Wreck" and found that a number of people have had various versions of the song copyrighted. The original version of the song is in the public domain and can be played without payment of royalties.

BUSTING POPULAR MYTHS OF GEORGIA TECH FOOTBALL

MYTH: If you play wide receiver at Georgia Tech, you have very little chance of making it to the NFL.

BUSTED: Demaryius Thomas was the first player taken in the 2010 NFL draft. Stephen Hill was selected early in the second round of the 2012 draft. Calvin Johnson may not have played in the current offense, but he is arguably the best receiver in the game. The truth is that NFL scouts love Georgia Tech receivers because not only are they well-schooled, but they also learn blocking skills.

MYTH: If a team has two weeks to prepare for Georgia Tech's offense, it can be totally shut down.

BUSTED: In 2012, three very good teams – Duke, North Carolina and USC – had more than a week to prepare for the Yellow Jackets. Georgia Tech won those three games and averaged a whopping 43.7 points per game in the process.

MYTH: When Georgia Tech trails, its offense does not lend itself to coming from behind.

BUSTED: Tech's offense is one of the most explosive in college football. Since Paul Johnson arrived at Tech in 2008, the Yellow Jackets have 21 one-play touchdown drives. As far as coming from behind is concerned, under Johnson the Yellow Jackets have overcome deficits of seven points or more to win 12 times. In 2008, Tech trailed Georgia by 16 points at halftime and won 45-42.

MYTH: If you play defense for the Yellow Jackets, you practice all week against the triple option.

BUSTED: Actually, Tech's defense practices very little against the triple option and hardly at all during the season. The defense practices against the scout team, which runs the offense the upcoming opponent uses.

MYTH: Georgia Tech's offense is the triple option.

BUSTED: It's actually called the "spread option." The triple option is just one series of plays within the offense. Tech's offense is more similar to other schools than you may think. Ohio State, Florida and schools of that ilk have the same offensive principles and often run the option or read-option. The basic difference is that more often than not Tech's quarterback is under center, although the Yellow Jackets ran the shotgun formation more in 2012 than any recent season.

MYTHBUSTERS

MYTH: Georgia Tech's quarterback is likely to get injured because he takes so many hits.

BUSTED: Since early November of 2010, Tech's quarterback has not missed a single start and has not missed a practice because of injury. Yes, the quarterback is asked to run the ball often, which means he does get tackled. However, because Tech does not drop back and throw the ball 60 times per game, the quarterback is rarely sacked and hardly ever is blind-sided.

MYTH: Georgia Tech's offense is similar to the wishbone.

BUSTED: Not true in formation nor implementation. Only one back lines up in the backfield. And while the wishbone was a three yards and a cloud of dust offense, Tech is annually one of the nation's leaders in plays of 20+, 30+, 40+, 50+, 60+ and 70+ yards. .

MYTH: Tech football players struggle academically because of the high academic standards.

BUSTED: Georgia Tech's Academic Progress Report (APR) ranks in the top 10 percent nationally among all FBS schools.

2013 PREVIEW

2013 OUTLOOK

Deeper Yellow Jackets, With 15 Starters Returning, Take Momentum Into 2013

Georgia Tech, which returns 15 starters and 54 letter-winners from a team that closed the 2012 season with an appearance in the ACC Championship Game and a post-season bowl victory, looks for even bigger success in 2013.

The Yellow Jackets overcame a 2-4 start to finish 7-7 overall and 5-3 in the ACC last season. Tech defeated USC, the preseason No. 1-ranked team, 21-7 in the Hyundai Sun Bowl.

The win over the Trojans, combined with the addition of new defensive coordinator Ted Roof and many pieces of Tech's high-octane offense returning, has created an optimistic atmosphere on the Flats.

"We're excited," sixth-year head coach Paul Johnson said. "I think we accomplished some things in the spring and the players have worked hard, so we're anxious to get started."

There are additional reasons for the excitement surrounding the Yellow Jackets:

■ Leadership -- While still a relatively young team, Georgia Tech has 18 seniors, including 11 who started last season.

■ Experience -- All combined, Georgia Tech's returning players have combined for 361 career starts. Only three teams in college football have more combined starts.

■ Depth -- The Yellow Jackets are deeper on the offensive line, at B-back and in the defensive secondary than they have been in years.

■ Consistency -- As has been proven over the years, one thing you can count on is that Paul Johnson's offense will rack up the yardage -- Tech has finished in the top five nationally in rushing offense each of the past five seasons -- and the points. There is little reason to think that will change in 2013.

Conversely, like most teams, the Yellow Jackets have plenty of concerns this fall.

There's a challenging schedule. Ten of Tech's 12 opponents won at least six games last season. The Yellow Jackets must play ACC Coastal Division rivals North Carolina and Virginia Tech over a five-day span in September. Tech has back-to-back road games at Miami and BYU in early October, and it closes the season with traditional rival Georgia, which won the SEC East last year.

With the departure of Tevin Washington, Tech will have a new starting quarterback, most likely athletic sophomore Vad Lee, although redshirt freshman Justin Thomas is expected to be a key part of the offense as well.

Tech is thin at wide receiver, where junior Darren Waller is the only healthy returner with a career reception. A non-football injury to sophomore Anthony Autry in the spring means a rookie or two will need to step up.

While the defense made great strides the second half of 2012, they're still learning a new scheme under Roof. Tech's defense struggled at times last season getting off the field and had a difficult time creating third-and-long situations.

"Clearly, we need to get off to a better start (this season)," Johnson said. "Four of our first five games are against division opponents, so we'll know where we stand in early October."

What's New

Since the win over USC in El Paso on New Year's Eve, there's been changes on and off the field.

The first step was the hiring of Roof, who was an all-star linebacker during his playing days at Georgia Tech. Well-respected nationally as a defensive coach and top-notch recruiter, Roof was an ideal selection to replace Al Groh as defensive coordinator.

Assistant coach Charles Kelly's departure for a similar job at Florida State opened the door to hire former Auburn assistant Mike Pelton as defensive line coach. The hiring of Pelton allowed Andy McCollum to switch from D-line to linebackers, and for Joe Speed to move from linebackers to the secondary.

Assistant coach Dave Walkosky will again focus solely on special teams. After Groh was let go in mid-season last year, Walkosky also took on the duties of coaching the defensive line.

Quarterbacks and B-backs coach Brian Bohannon also departed after being offered the job as head coach for Kenesaw State's fledgling program. Bohannon took with him director of player personnel Liam Klein.

Tech then beefed up its recruiting efforts by replacing Klein with director of player personnel Matt Griffin, but also by hiring two assistants -- Mike Cassano and former Yellow Jacket Saeed Khalif.

Khalif is one of three former Georgia Tech players who are new to the Yellow Jacket football staff.

Johnson also welcomed back Joe Hamilton, the former Yellow Jacket All-American quarterback and 1999 Heisman Trophy runner-up.

Recent Tech linebacker Steven Sylvester was hired as a graduate assistant.

"It's great to have former Georgia Tech players back in the program," Johnson said. "They care deeply about this place and this program."

Construction in the football wing created new offices for Tech's expanded staff. An NFL locker room, which will be used by current NFL players during their off-season, was also constructed.

Just after spring practice began, Cal Poly's Bryan Cook was hired to coach the quarterbacks and B-backs. Cook, a former Georgia Tech assistant coach, ran an offense very similar to Tech's last year at Cal Poly.

Defense

The Yellow Jackets aren't complete strangers to the 4-3 that Roof often employs -- Tech played a similar scheme much of the second half of last season when it won five of its final eight games.

Roof's scheme seems to be a good fit.

Senior Jeremiah Attaochu's move from outside linebacker to defensive end should allow him to do what he does best -- rush the passer. Attaochu, who has 19 career sacks, should bolster a pass rush that was deficient at times last season.

A pair of seniors -- returning starter Emmanuel Dieke and Chris Crenshaw -- are competing for the starting job at the other end position. Juniors Anthony Williams and Nick Menocal, and redshirt freshmen Roderick Rook-Chungong and Tyler Stargel will also challenge at end.

Australian sophomore Adam Gotsis is the frontrunner at nose tackle. Gotsis, who has great potential, was impressive last season as a true freshman reserve. Junior Shawn Green, who would have competed for a starting job, will likely begin the season on the injured list. Sophomore Jimmie Kitchen will be Gotsis' top competitor.

The other tackle position may belong to senior Euclid Cummings, who is coming off an outstanding spring. Redshirt freshman Patrick Gamble is an athletic rookie who should contribute immediately. Redshirt freshman Francis Kallon could also see time at tackle.

At linebacker, Tech is faster and more athletic.

Sophomore Jabari Hunt-Days, the returning starter, and senior Daniel Drummond, also with starting experience, combine with sophomore Anthony Harrell to give Tech solid depth at middle linebacker.

Hunt-Days is a rising star. Drummond is a hard-nosed veteran, while Harrell is one of the team's hardest hitters.

The top two candidates at outside linebacker -- junior Quayshawn Nealy and senior Brandon Watts -- are both returning starters and both have all-star potential.

Junior Tremayne McNair, sophomore Tyler Marcordes and redshirt freshman Beau Hankins enter fall drills as the top back-ups at outside linebacker.

The secondary, which includes a number of All-ACC candidates, should be one of Tech's strengths in 2013.

Perhaps the leader of the bunch is cornerback Jemea Thomas, a versatile senior who can play any position in the secondary. Thomas has seven career interceptions, including a nifty one-handed pick of Florida State's E.J. Manuel in the 2012 ACC Championship Game.

Senior Louis Young, who has 21 career starts to his credit, anchors the other corner. Sophomores Domonique Noble and D.J. White are two very capable back-ups.

Senior Isaiah Johnson, who owns 29 career starts, is expected to start at safety. Johnson suffered an injury in December that caused him to miss the bowl game and all of spring practice, but he is expected to be at 100 percent this fall.

As many as six other players could compete for a starting job, giving Tech great depth at safety.

Sophomore Chris Milton, who may have been Tech's top special teams performer last season, enters the fall atop the depth chart. Sophomore Demond Smith, junior Jamal Golden, junior Coray Carlson and impressive redshirt freshman Lynn Griffin are close behind.

The intriguing figure at safety is junior Fred Holton, who hasn't played a snap since 2010. Holton, who tore his Achilles in August of 2011, is hopeful of being cleared for full contact in August.

Offense

Since Paul Johnson's arrival in 2008, Georgia Tech has consistently put up gaudy numbers. Last year the Yellow Jackets ranked fourth nationally in rushing offense, and they ranked in the top one-third of the ACC in scoring offense and total offense.

The names change, but the results haven't.

Gone is quarterback Tevin Washington, who started every game the last two seasons and broke an ACC record for rushing touchdowns.

While Washington's experience and knowledge of the offense will be missed, Tech will be quicker and more athletic at quarterback regardless of who is under center.

The leading candidate is sophomore Vad Lee, who played a big chunk of the snaps the second half of last season. Lee, who has shown great leadership ability as a young player, rushed for nine touchdowns and threw for four more.

Redshirt freshman Justin Thomas, lightning-quick and dangerous in the option game, is expected to play even if he doesn't win the starting job. Sophomore Tim Byerly enters the fall third on the depth chart.

While no B-back has rushed for 1,000 yards since Anthony Allen in 2010, senior David Sims and junior Zach Laskey have proved to be a solid one-two punch. Last year the duo combined to rush for more than 1,300 yards. Sims' five highest career rushing outputs came in the final five games of the 2012 season.

Junior Matt Connors, a hard-nosed non-scholarship player, and sophomore Broderick Snoddy, arguably the fastest player on the roster, give the Yellow Jackets good depth at B-back.

Gone at A-back is Orwin Smith, Tech's best rush-receive combo player the last two years. However, the A-back position is fully stocked.

Leading the way is senior Robert Godhigh, the 5-7 former walk-on who averaged 7.9 yards per carry and 15.1

yards per reception last season. Godhigh may also be Tech's best-blocking A-back.

Junior B.J. Bostic enters the fall ranked first on the depth chart at the other A-back position. Bostic is quick and has a nose for finding the first-down marker.

Four other juniors -- former quarterback Synjyn Days, speedy Tony Zenon, who missed spring practice with an injury, Deon Hill and Charles Perkins should all see considerable action. Redshirt freshman Dennis Andrews was impressive in the spring and could be on the verge of a breakout season.

The wide receiver positions may be Tech's biggest question mark.

Sophomore Anthony Autry, who was impressive the first half of 2012 as a true freshman, missed the second half of the season with a knee injury. He re-injured that knee in the spring on the way to class.

The only returning receiver with a career reception is junior Darren Waller, who started 10 games last season and has outstanding potential. Waller caught just eight passes last season, but averaged more than 20 yards per reception.

Junior Corey Dennis, a former defensive back, enters the fall as the starter at the other wide receiver. He will get plenty of competition from a pair of redshirt freshmen -- Micheal Summers and Travin Henry.

One or more true freshmen could contribute right away and Tech is hoping to get contributions from DeAndre Smelter, who will try his hand at football after three seasons on the Yellow Jacket baseball team.

The offensive line has a chance to be deep with a little help on the injury front.

Senior center Jay Finch missed all of spring practice after undergoing off-season surgery. Finch, who is on the watch list for the Rimington Trophy, would be a big boost to the line if he can re-gain his strength in time.

Redshirt freshman Freddie Burden, who was competing for the top back-up job, suffered an injury in the spring that will likely keep him sidelined all season. Junior Catlin Alford and redshirt freshman Michael Muns got all the snaps in the spring after Burden's injury.

At guard, Tech is in good hands. Senior Will Jackson, an Academic All-ACC selection and a May graduate, has started 29 times. Junior Shaq Mason, a returning starter, has made an impact since stepping on campus in 2011.

Three sophomores -- Trey Braun, Errin Joe and Auburn transfer Thomas O'Reilly -- are the top reserves at guard.

Returning at left tackle is Ray Beno, who also graduated from Tech in May after earning Academic All-ACC honors. Junior Morgan Bailey, who has great potential but has battled nagging injuries the last two years, enters the fall as the

Sophomore Bryan Chamberlain and redshirt freshman Chase Roberts should both see considerable action at tackle.

Special Teams

Tech's special teams made improvements last season under first-year special teams coordinator Dave Walkosky, ranking in the top 25 nationally in kick returns, punt returns and punt return defense.

There remains plenty of room for improvement, in particular on kickoff return defense and net punting.

Junior Jamal Golden was a star on special teams last year. He was the only player in the nation to rank in the top 10 nationally in both kickoff returns (28.3 ypa) and punt returns (14.6 ypa). Golden returned two kickoffs for touchdowns -- one each against BYU and North Carolina. Previously, Tech had not returned a kick for a touchdown since 1998.

Both punters return. Senior Sean Poole was the starter last season until separating his shoulder trying to make a tackle against Miami. Sophomore Ryan Rodwell, who took over in Poole's absence, had nearly identical numbers.

The interesting competition to watch early this fall will be at kicker, where senior David Scully and true freshman Harrison Butler will battle. Scully made 38-of-40 PATs, 4-of-9 field goals and handled the majority of kickoffs last season.

Gone is veteran long snapper Tyler Morgan, but scholarship sophomore Sean Tobin, who redshirted last season, is more than capable.

The Schedule

Two words describe Georgia Tech's 2013 schedule -- challenging and unique.

The Yellow Jackets will play in ESPN Thursday Night games twice -- vs. Virginia Tech and at Clemson. Coupled with two open dates, that means there are four Saturdays this fall in which Georgia Tech will be idle.

"The two Thursday night games give us an opportunity for great exposure against two really good opponents," Johnson said.

The Jackets' Thursday night game against Virginia Tech comes just five days after hosting another ACC Coastal Division rival, North Carolina. In October, Tech plays consecutive Saturdays on the road at Miami -- where the Yellow Jackets have not won since 2007 -- and BYU.

The good news is that Tech plays just two road games after October 12th, including just one longer than driving distance.

Preseason Hoopla

Georgia Tech was picked to finish third in the ACC Coastal Division by both The Sporting News and Athlon. Athlon ranks the Yellow Jackets 34th nationally.

Phil Steele's magazine tabbed senior defensive end Jeremiah Attaochu preseason first team All-ACC, and the publication put junior kick and punt return specialist Jamal Golden on its third (and fourth) team preseason All-American team.

Athlon put Tech Jr. LB Quayshawn Nealy on its preseason All-ACC first team.

Sporting News named Attaochu the ACC's Biggest Pass Rusher.

Sporting News also named Tech head coach Paul Johnson the ACC's Best Game-Day Coach. "Few coaches understand the ins and outs of their system better than Johnson," the TSN reported.

Historic Grant Field: 100th Anniversary

Georgia Tech is planning a season-long celebration of Historic Grant Field's 100th anniversary.

To mark the anniversary, a special logo (right) was created.

The highlight of the celebration will come Sept. 26 when the Yellow Jackets host Virginia Tech in an ESPN Thursday night game. Tech will wear throw-back uniforms and every player who ever earned All-American status has been invited back to campus.

Sweet Sixteen (Consecutive Bowls)

Georgia Tech has played in a bowl game in each of the last 16 seasons. The last time the Yellow Jackets failed to make a bowl game was 1996, when most members of this year's freshmen class were one-year old.

Tech's consecutive bowl streak of 16 years trails only active streaks by Florida State (31), Florida (22) and Virginia Tech (20).

CURRENT CONSECUTIVE BOWL APPEARANCES

No.	School	Since
31	Florida State	1982
22	Florida	1991
20	Virginia Tech	1993
16	Georgia Tech	1997
16	Georgia	1997

Model Of Consistency

Georgia Tech has finished .500 or better in ACC play for 18 consecutive seasons – the longest such streak by any team nationally.

Tech has won 40 games over the last five seasons combined for an average of 8.0 wins per season.

The Jackets have finished .500 or better overall in 14 of the last 15 seasons.

CONSECUTIVE NON-LOSING SEASONS IN CONFERENCE PLAY

14	Boise State	WAC/Big West	1999
14	Clemson	ACC	1999
13	Oklahoma	Big 12	2000
11	USC	Pac 12	2001

Scoring Streak At 198

Georgia Tech has played 198 consecutive games since last being shutout – Oct. 18, 1997 vs. Florida State. It stands as the second-longest streak in ACC history.

The Yellow Jackets have had just two scoreless halves over the last four years combined – vs. Miami in 2011 (2nd half) and vs. Air Force in 2010 (2nd half).

Coastal Living

Since the ACC began divisional play in 2005, Georgia Tech has won the second-most conference games in that span. Tech has averaged five ACC wins over this eight-year span and claimed the Coastal Division title three times.

Paul Johnson: Impressive Numbers

Johnson was the first coach in ACC history to be named Coach of the Year in each of his first two seasons.

Only four coaches in ACC history won more games in their first four seasons than Johnson.

Johnson is 6-2 at home against top 25 opponents.

Since Bobby Dodd retired after the 1966 season, only one Georgia Tech coach -- George O'Leary (612) -- won 60 percent of his games. Johnson's win percentage is .606.

Johnson has at least eight wins in 13 of his 16 seasons as a head coach.

Tech has scored at least one rushing touchdown in 59 of 66 games under Johnson.

In 13 of the Jackets' 40 wins under Johnson, Tech trailed by seven points or more.

A Yellow Jacket has earned Academic All-ACC honors 16 times in Paul Johnson's five seasons at Georgia Tech.

Tech has scored 15 non-offensive touchdowns in Paul Johnson's five seasons as head coach (three each season).

Only four teams in Georgia Tech history rushed for 300 yards per game. Three of those teams have been under Johnson.

JOHNSON'S RECORD WHEN...

21-3	when holding opponents to 20 points or less
24-9	at home
28-3	when scoring more than 30 points
32-5	when leading at halftime
36-3	when leading after three quarters

2012	13	4,357	311.2

All-ACC Streak

Georgia Tech has placed at least one player on the All-ACC first team (media) in each of the last 17 seasons. Equally impressive, the Jackets have had at least one offensive lineman on the All-ACC first team (media) for five consecutive seasons.

In Search Of 25k

Since Georgia Tech began playing football in 1892, the Yellow Jackets have scored 24,553 combined points.

Can Tech reach 25,000 before the end of the 2013 season? It's possible. Last year the Jackets scored 470 points in 14 games -- an average of 33.6 points per game.

Four-Down Territory

Over the last five seasons, the Yellow Jackets have played eight games when they did not punt or punted just one time.

Why so few punts? The ability of Tech's offense to sustain long drives is a big reason. But also, the Yellow Jackets have been know to go for it on fourth down quite often.

Last season, only two teams in college football attempted more fourth-down conversions than Georgia Tech, which was 23-of-37 on fourth down, including 4-of-4 vs. Florida State in the ACC Championship. Only 12 teams in college football went for it on fourth down 30 times or more last season.

From Down Under To The Flats

Georgia Tech sophomore Adam Gotsis was one of 17 FBS players last season from Australia. Gotsis, who is expected to start at nose tackle this fall, was one of just four non-punters from Australia to play last year.

Ted Roof Back At Old Stomping Grounds

Ted Roof, defensive coordinator at Penn State in 2012 and at Auburn when the Tigers won a BCS national championship following the 2010 season, returned to Georgia Tech in January to serve as defensive coordinator for his alma mater.

Roof has strong ties to Tech. He was a four-year letterwinner as a linebacker under head coach Bill Curry from 1982-85 and is in the Georgia Tech Athletics Hall of Fame.

He returned to the Flats in 1998 to serve as linebackers coach under head coach George O'Leary. He was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1999 and held that position for three years. The Yellow Jackets shared an ACC title in '98 and played in a bowl game all four years during Roof's tenure.

Last season, Roof served as defensive coordinator under another former Georgia Tech assistant coach, Bill O'Brien. The Nittany Lions exceeded all expectations by posting an 8-4 record. Roof's defense ranked second in the Big Ten Conference in scoring defense (19.1 ppg), first in sacks (34), first in red-zone defense and third in turnover margin.

The Name Game

If you hear a television or radio announcer sounding a little tongue-tied during a Georgia Tech broadcast this fall, give them a little slack.

Georgia Tech's roster includes four players who share Griffin for a last name: Corey, Chris, Lynn and Ty. All four Griffins -- no relation -- are freshmen (Lynn is a redshirt freshman). Corey and Lynn are both defensive backs.

There are also three Alford on the roster -- Catlin, Chase and Corey. Chase, a true freshman, and Corey, a senior, are brothers.

The 2013 roster also includes two Allens (Marcus and Zach), two Smiths (Demond and Will), two Thomas' (Jemea and Justin), and two Williams' (Anthony and Mitchell).

The roster includes two sets of brothers: Chase and Corey Alford, and Synjyn Days and Jabari Hunt-Days.

Running For Miles

Over the last five seasons -- or since Paul Johnson arrived on campus prior to the 2008 season -- Georgia Tech has rushed for more yards than any FBS team in the nation. The Yellow Jackets, since 2008, have rushed for more than 20,000 yards, which is more than 11.3 miles.

FBS RUSHING OVER THE LAST FIVE SEASONS

1.	Georgia Tech	67	20,362	303.91
2.	Air Force	65	19,343	297.58
3.	Navy	64	18,630	291.09

Tech Adds To Strong Bowl Tradition

• With its 16th consecutive bowl appearance in 2012, Georgia Tech is tied for the fourth-longest active streak. The Jackets trail only Florida State (31), Florida (22) and Virginia Tech (20).

• Tech made its 41st bowl appearance overall this past season, tying for the 12th-most nationally.

• With a record of 23-18, Tech has the ninth-highest bowl winning percentage nationally and the 10th-most bowl wins.

• Georgia Tech was the first school to win each of the four traditional major bowls -- the Rose, Orange, Sugar and Cotton. It completed that feat in 1955.

• Following the 2009 season, Tech played in a BCS bowl game -- the Orange Bowl -- against Iowa.

• Tech's first bowl game was the 1929 Rose Bowl -- the famous "Wrong Way Riegels" game against California.

Ball Hogs

Over the last 40 years, Georgia Tech has produced a time of possession of 39:56 or longer six times. Two -- vs. Georgia and against Boston College -- came in 2012.

Yellow Jacket Notebook

• Yellow Jacket running back Charles Perkins got married this past spring. His best man was senior teammate Jeremiah Attaochu.

• Tech redshirt freshman Zach Allen can speak Portuguese.

• Several Yellow Jacket players had significant internships this summer including senior punter Sean Poole, who interned for a lobbying firm in Washington, D.C.

• Georgia Tech graduate assistant coach Zac Etheridge was a four-year starter who broke his neck in the first quarter of an '09 game against Ole Miss. Nine months later, after extensive rehabilitation, Etheridge returned to the starting lineup for Auburn's memorable run to the national title in 2010.

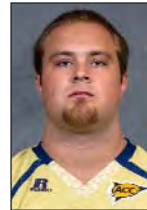

Locks Of Love

Over the last year, three Yellow Jacket players -- Corey Alford, Coray Carlson and David Scully -- have donated their lengthy hair to Locks of Love.

Locks of Love is a public non-profit organization that provides hairpieces to financially disadvantaged children in the United States and Canada under age 21 suffering from long-term medical hair loss from any diagnosis.

COACHING STAFF

Paul JOHNSON
HEAD COACH
6th Season at Tech (40-26)
16th season overall (147-65)
Western Carolina (1979)
@gtpauljohnson

Paul Johnson, who has led Georgia Tech to five bowl games and two ACC Championship Game appearances while breaking records with his spread option offense, enters his sixth year with the Yellow Jackets and his 16th year overall as a head coach.

The only person ever named ACC Coach of the Year in his first two seasons in the league, Johnson has compiled a record of 40-26 in five seasons on the Flats. Johnson won more games in his first five seasons than any coach in Georgia Tech history. Over the last five seasons combined, only Virginia Tech has won more ACC games than Johnson's Yellow Jackets.

In 15 years overall as a head coach, with previous stops at Georgia Southern and Navy, Johnson owns a career record of 147-65. Only 13 active FBS coaches have won more games and only 12 have won at a higher percentage.

The mastermind behind Georgia Tech's high-octane spread option offense, Johnson's teams have ranked in the top four nationally in rushing offense each of the last five seasons. Since 2008, Georgia Tech has rushed for more yards than any team in college football. Over the past five seasons combined, the Yellow Jackets have rushed for more than 20,000 yards -- or the equivalent of 11.4 miles.

What Johnson has accomplished at Georgia Tech has been remarkable:

- In his first two seasons at Tech, Johnson was named the ACC Coach of the Year.

- In 2008, he was named National Coach of the Year by CBS Sports.

- In 2009, the Jackets played in the ACC title game against Clemson (Tech won the game, but later vacated).

- Tech played in a BCS bowl game for the first time in 2009.

- Tech has averaged 8.0 wins per season under Johnson.

- Tech led the nation in rushing in 2010 and finished second in 2011.

- In 39 of Johnson's 66 games at Georgia Tech, the Yellow Jackets produced more than 400 yards of total offense.

- Under Johnson, Tech produced four 1,000-yard rushers -- Jonathan Dwyer in 2008, Dwyer and Joshua Nesbitt in 2009, and Anthony Allen in 2010.

- Over the last five years combined, the Yellow Jackets have produced 14 first team All-ACC selections.

- Tech has produced two first team All-Americans under Johnson -- Michael Johnson in 2008 and Derrick Morgan in 2009.

- Since Johnson's arrival, a Tech player has been named ACC Offensive Player of the Year (Dwyer in 2008) and ACC Defensive Player of the Year (Morgan in 2009).

- Johnson is 12-5 at Tech in games decided by five points or less.

- Tech has scored more than 30 points in a game 31 times under Johnson and has a 28-3 record in those contests.

- In 2009, Tech won in Tallahassee (Fla.) for the first time in school history, beat a top-five ranked team at home (Virginia Tech) for the first time since 1962, won on the road in Charlottesville (Va.) for the first time since 1990 and earned its highest national ranking (7th) since 1999.

- In Johnson's five seasons, Tech has scored 15 non-offensive touchdowns (three each season).

- Johnson is 6-2 in home games against top-25 opponents.

- Under Johnson, Tech's Academic Progress Report (APR) scores have risen each of the last four years.

Last season Georgia Tech struggled to a 2-4 start, which included a pair of heart-breaking overtime losses to ACC Coastal Division rivals Virginia Tech and Miami. But the Yellow Jackets turned it around the second half of the season, erupting for 68 points at North Carolina en route to winning four straight conference games. By the time the dust cleared in late November, Tech was crowned Coastal Division champion and played in the ACC Championship Game.

Statistically, the Yellow Jackets produced more yards of total offense and rushed for more yards than any team in school history, and averaged a school-record 40.0 points per game in conference play. The 7-7 season culminated with an upset with over Southern California, 21-7, in the Hyundai Sun Bowl.

In 2011, Georgia Tech exceeded all expectations. After being picked to finish fourth in the ACC Coastal Division, the Yellow Jackets went 8-5, 5-3 in the ACC, and played in a bowl game for the 15th consecutive season.

PAUL JOHNSON

With just 10 scholarship seniors on the roster, Tech bolted to a 6-0 start, setting school, ACC and NCAA records for offense along the way, and rising to as high as 13th in the national polls. In October, the Jackets handed sixth-ranked and eventual ACC champion Clemson a 31-17 loss in Bobby Dodd Stadium, a win that eventually helped Tech earn a bid to the Hyundai Sun Bowl.

In 2010, the Yellow Jackets -- who lost four juniors to the 2010 NFL Draft and played the final four games without injured quarterback Joshua Nesbitt -- finished 4-4 in the ACC and led the nation in rushing offense for the first time in school history. Two Yellow Jackets -- senior center Sean Bedford and senior running back Anthony Allen -- were named first team All-ACC in 2010.

The 2009 season was one of the most memorable in Yellow Jacket history despite fielding one of the youngest rosters in college football (just six scholarship seniors).

After a mid-September loss at nationally-ranked Miami when the Yellow Jackets played their third game in a 12-day span, Tech reeled off eight consecutive victories including a 5-0 record in October when it played four road games. A convincing 49-10 win at Duke on Nov. 14 clinched the ACC Coastal Division crown, then Tech defeated Clemson for a second time, this time in the ACC Championship Game in Tampa, Fla. That game was later vacated due to NCAA sanctions.

Tech, which reached a national ranking as high as seventh, played in the FedEx Orange Bowl, its first appearance in a major bowl game since 1962. Along the way, the Yellow Jackets rolled up mind-boggling numbers on offense, ranking second nationally in rushing offense (295.4 ypg) and third in time of possession (33:49).

Prior to the start of the 2008 season, Sports Illustrated projected Georgia Tech to finish 3-9 and the ACC media picked the Yellow Jackets to finish fourth in the Coastal Division. However, Johnson directed Tech to a 9-4 record, a share of the Coastal Division title and a Chick-fil-A Bowl berth. Johnson's first Yellow Jacket team beat three nationally-ranked opponents -- Florida State, Miami and Georgia -- over the final four games of the regular season. The win over Georgia snapped a seven-game losing streak to Tech's in-state rival.

Johnson's first season at Georgia Tech was remarkable for a number of reasons. Not only did he and his staff install completely new offensive and defensive schemes, but Johnson inherited one of the nation's youngest rosters,

*Total includes Johnson's six seasons at Navy and first four seasons at Georgia Tech which included 76 freshmen and sophomores. The last one-third of the season, 16 of Tech's 22 starters were freshmen or sophomores. He also took over a program low in scholarship numbers, well below the maximum of 85, the lingering effects of distant NCAA penalties.

The 2008 team also suffered more than its share of injuries. Twelve opening-day starters combined to miss 31 games because of injuries. In a September road game at defending ACC champion Virginia Tech, the Jackets started a walk-on freshman at wide receiver. A few weeks later, Tech started its third-string quarterback as the result of injuries to starter Joshua Nesbitt and back-up Jaybo Shaw.

Almost as soon as Johnson was hired, the pundits questioned if Johnson's option-based spread offense would work on the BCS level. Those questions came even though Navy had racked up mind-numbing offensive numbers, leading the NCAA in rushing three straight years from 2005 to 2007, mostly against ACC and other BCS-level competition.

Johnson quieted those critics almost as soon as the 2008 season kicked off and certainly after Tech closed the regular season by combining for 86 points and 881 rushing yards in games against nationally-ranked Miami and Georgia. The Yellow Jackets, with freshmen and sophomores manning every skill position and behind a patch-work offensive line, averaged 273.2 rushing yards per game, ranking fourth nationally and first in the ACC. Georgia Tech also led the ACC in total offense (372.5 ypg).

Johnson enjoyed success as the head coach at Georgia Southern (1997-2001) and Navy (2002-2007) before being named Georgia Tech's 12th head coach on Dec. 12, 2007.

Johnson coached six years at Navy, where in 2007 the Midshipmen won a fifth straight Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, earned a postseason bowl bid for the fifth consecutive year and beat Notre Dame for the first time since 1963. Johnson was a finalist for the 2007 Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year.

In six seasons at Navy, Johnson compiled a record of 45-29.

Johnson took over a Navy program that was coming off the worst two-year span in its 123-year history (1-20) and had recorded just two winning seasons in the last 20 years. After a 2-10 mark in Johnson's first year, the Midshipmen achieved what many thought was no longer possible at an Academy. Johnson brought the Midshipmen back into the national spotlight with a 43-19 (.694) record over his last four-plus years.

Johnson dominated the other two Service Academies like no other coach in the school's annals, posting an 11-1 (.917) overall record, including a perfect 6-0 mark against rival Army. His 2007 senior class was the first in school history to post a perfect 8-0 mark against Army and Air Force.

Johnson's Navy teams improved as each season progressed. Over his last five years, Navy posted a 13-2 (.867) record over the final three games of the season and outscored the opposition 611-335 in those contests. In games in which Johnson had more than a week to prepare for an opponent, the Midshipmen went 15-6 (.714) over his last four years combined.

The Midshipmen led the nation in rushing in 2007 for an unprecedented third consecutive year, producing more than 350 yards per game. Under Johnson, Navy never finished lower than third nationally in rushing offense. Navy ranked among the nation's highest-scoring teams in 2007, averaging 39.92 points per outing. The 2007 Mids also ranked in the top 10 nationally in kickoff returns and in fewest sacks allowed.

Navy ranked No. 1 in the country in graduation rates during Johnson's tenure.

In 2004, Johnson was named Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year after leading Navy to a 10-2 record, tying the school record for wins set in 1905, and won a bowl game (34-19 victory vs. New Mexico in the Emerald Bowl) for just the fifth time in the history of the program.

In 2003, Johnson led Navy to an 8-5 record and brought the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy back to Annapolis for the first time since 1981, propelling Navy to a bowl game for the first time since 1996. The Mids became just the sixth team in NCAA history to go from a winless season to a bowl game in two years or less.

Before arriving at Annapolis, Johnson served as head coach at Georgia Southern from 1997 to 2001. At Georgia Southern, Johnson posted a 62-10 (.861) record, won two straight I-AA National Championships (1999 and 2000), five consecutive Southern Conference Championships and was named the Division I-AA National Coach of the Year four straight years (1997-2000).

After Johnson took over as head coach at Georgia Southern in 1997, he returned the Eagle program to national prominence statistically and in the won-lost ledger. In addition to Georgia Southern's 62-10 mark, the Eagles scored 2,855 points (39.7 points per game), picked up 25,941 rushing yards (360.3 yards per game), 7,816 passing yards (108.6 yards per game) and 33,757 total yards (468.8 yards per game). GSU scored 380 touchdowns in the Johnson era, an average of 5.3 per game. The Eagles' scoring margin under Johnson was +21.5 (39.7-18.5).

Johnson picked up a milestone victory in the 2000 I-AA National Championship Game against Montana. Not only did the 27-25 victory give Georgia Southern its second straight national title, but it was also Johnson's 50th career win in four seasons. Only three other coaches in the history of Division I football won 50 or more games in four seasons -- Walter Camp (1888-1891, 54-2 at Yale), George Woodruff (1892-1895, 53-4 at Penn) and Bob Pruett (1996-99, 50-4 at Marshall).

Johnson took over a Georgia Southern program in 1997 that was 4-7 the previous year and orchestrated a turnaround that ranked among the NCAA's best, directing the Eagles to a 10-3 record. He was named Southern Conference Coach of the Year by the media and Region II Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association.

In 1998, Johnson guided the Eagles to a perfect 11-0 regular season record and the school's sixth NCAA Division I-AA National Championship Game appearance before finishing with a 14-1 mark. He directed a high-powered offensive unit that tied or broke 100 records during the campaign, again earned the league's top coaching honor and received The Sports Network's Eddie Robinson Award -- symbolic of the division's national Coach of the Year selection.

In 1999, Johnson brought Georgia Southern its fifth national title, and the Eagles finished 13-2 while breaking 197 records. For his efforts, Johnson was honored as the 1999 AFCA and Chevrolet I-AA National Coach of the Year. Johnson duplicated the feat in the 2000 season as the Eagles repeated as national champions, again finishing 13-2, and Johnson captured the AFCA I-AA Coach of the Year award once more.

In five seasons at Georgia Southern, Johnson's squads broke or tied 379 individual and team school, conference, playoff or stadium records, ranked in the top 10 in 21 statistical categories and produced 31 All-Americans. The Eagles won an NCAA I-AA-record 39 consecutive games at home. Meanwhile, their 52 wins over those four seasons were the most in all of Division I.

Johnson was previously Navy's offensive coordinator in 1995 and 1996, and his spread offense made an immediate impact, breaking five school records during the Mids' five-win season in 1995.

Navy posted a 9-3 record the next season in 1996, including a 42-38 victory over California in the Aloha Bowl. It was Navy's first winning season since 1982 and one of only two winning seasons the Mids had during a 19-year span. Prior to joining the Navy staff, Johnson spent eight seasons as the offensive coordinator at the University of Hawai'i (1987-94). He helped guide the Rainbows to their first Western Athletic Conference title and their first bowl appearance, coordinating an explosive offense that broke or equaled more than 160 school records.

While at Hawai'i, Johnson developed a successful offensive unit which earned top-20 I-A statistical rankings in scoring offense, total offense and rushing offense during six of his eight seasons. He earned top offensive coach honors in the WAC and was named one of the top 10 assistant coaches in the country by The Sporting News. After first arriving at Georgia Southern in 1983 as defensive line coach, Johnson was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1985. Under his tutelage, record-setting quarterback Tracy Ham and the Eagle offense re-wrote the school record book while averaging 435 total yards and 36 points per contest. Georgia Southern rolled to a combined 26-4 record and captured a pair of I-AA titles in 1985-86.

Johnson's coaching career began when he was offensive coordinator and line coach at his alma mater, Avery County (N.C.) High School, in 1979-80. He accepted the offensive coordinator's position at Lees-McRae Junior College in 1981, leading his offensive unit to a sixth-place national standing among NJCAA total offense leaders.

Johnson, a native of Newland, N.C., earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Western Carolina in 1979 and a Master's degree in health and physical education from Appalachian State in 1982. He and wife, Susan, are the parents of a daughter, Kaitlyn.

PAUL JOHNSON'S GEORGIA TECH TIMELINE

December 7, 2007 -- Named head coach at Georgia Tech after six successful seasons at Navy. ●

January 2, 2008 -- Johnson announces first coaching staff (Brian Bohannon, Jeff Monken, Todd Spencer, Brian Jean-Mary, Charles Kelly, Giff Smith, Dave Wommack, Mike Sewak and Al "Buzz" Preston).

February 6, 2008 -- Johnson's first recruiting class includes 20 high school senior prospects.

March 24, 2008 -- First spring practice under Johnson at Tech.

August 28, 2008 -- First game at Tech is a success, a 41-14 win over Jacksonville State.

September 6, 2008 -- First ACC game and first road game, a 19-16 win at defending ACC Atlantic Division champion Boston College.

September 13, 2008 -- First loss, a 20-17 setback on the road against defending Coastal Division champion Virginia Tech.

October 4, 2008 -- With true freshman Jaybo Shaw starting at quarterback for injured starter Joshua Nesbitt, Tech shuts out Duke, 27-0.

October 18, 2008 -- Key road win at Death Valley against Clemson, 21-17.

November 1, 2008 -- Tech knocks off Bobby Bowden and Florida State at Bobby Dodd Stadium, 31-28. ●

November 20, 2008 -- Under the Thursday night lights of ESPN, the Jackets roll past Miami, 41-23.

November 29, 2008 -- Tech overcomes a 28-12 halftime deficit to beat rival Georgia between the hedges, 45-42, snapping a seven-year losing skid to the Bulldogs.

December 2, 2008 -- Johnson named ACC Coach of the Year. ●

December 31, 2008 -- Four months after Sports Illustrated picked Tech to win just three games, the Yellow Jackets close the season with a 9-4 record after falling to LSU in the Chick-fil-A Bowl.

September 10, 2009 -- Tech wins key division game on ESPN's Thursday night package, beating Clemson, 30-27.

October 11, 2009 -- The Jackets win in Tallahassee for the first time, beating Florida State 49-44 in a shootout.

October 17, 2009 -- Tech's 23-17 win over fourth-ranked Virginia Tech is the Yellow Jackets' first home win over a team ranked in the top five in nearly 50 years. ●

November 14, 2009 -- The Jackets clinch the ACC Coastal Division crown with a 49-10 win at Duke.

December 1, 2009 -- Johnson named ACC Coach of the Year for the second straight year -- the first time a coach has ever won the award in each of his first two seasons in the league.

December 6, 2009 -- In a game that was later vacated, Tech defeats Clemson, 39-34, in the ACC Championship Game in Tampa, Fla., sending the Yellow Jackets to a BCS Bowl game.

January 5, 2010 -- The Jackets fall to Iowa in the FedEx Orange Bowl, capping an 11-3 season.

January 15, 2010 -- Johnson hires Al Groh as defensive coordinator.

April 22, 2010 -- Two of Johnson's players -- Derrick Morgan and Demaryius Thomas -- are selected in the first round of the NFL draft.

December 27, 2010 -- Tech faces Air Force in the Advocare V100 Independence Bowl.

January, 2011 -- Tech finishes first nationally in rushing offense for the first time in school history.

August, 2011 -- The John and Mary Brock Indoor Practice Facility opens.

September 17, 2011 -- Tech set an NCAA record with 12.1 yards per rushing attempt, and an ACC record with 13.5 yards per play, in a 66-24 rout of Kansas.

October 29, 2011 -- The Jackets knocked off 6th-ranked, previously unbeaten and eventual ACC champion Clemson, 31-17, in front of 55,646 at Bobby Dodd Stadium. ●

November 10, 2012 -- Tech turned the season around and broke ACC records in the process with a 68-50 win at North Carolina.

December 31, 2012 -- The Yellow Jackets broke a bowl losing skid by beating USC -- which was the preseason No. 1-ranked team -- in the Hyundai Sun Bowl, 21-7. ●

January 9, 2013 -- Johnson hires former Georgia Tech player and assistant coach Ted Roof as defensive coordinator.

Bryan COOK
Quarterbacks/B-Backs
1st Season at Georgia Tech
Ithaca (1998)
@CoachBryanCook

Bryan Cook, co-offensive coordinator at Cal Poly the past four seasons and an assistant at Georgia Tech in the early 2000s, returns to Atlanta in 2013 to serve as quarterbacks and B-backs coach for the Yellow Jackets.

Cook replaced Brian Bohannon, who was named the first head coach at Kennesaw State.

Cal Poly, which runs an offense very similar to Georgia Tech's spread option, finished 9-3 last season and advanced to the second round of the NCAA FCS playoffs. The Mustangs, who were 7-1 in their first year in the Big Sky Conference, compiled a record of 26-19 in Cook's four seasons.

Under Cook, who also coached the Cal Poly quarterbacks and fullbacks, the Mustangs ranked third nationally last season in FCS rushing offense (324.2 yards per game), seventh in scoring offense (36.7 ppg) and first in pass efficiency (175.7).

"We are excited to have Bryan join our staff," head coach Paul Johnson said. "He is very familiar with the offense and the position groups he will be coaching. He's young and energetic, and I think an ideal fit for what we need."

Prior to joining the Cal Poly staff in 2009, Cook served four years as head coach at West Point Prep in Monmouth, N.J., where he compiled a 28-22-1 record. His 2008 team finished 7-3 and the 2006 squad went 8-2. He was the defensive coordinator at West Point Prep in 2004 before being promoted to head coach.

Cook was a graduate assistant coach three seasons at Georgia Tech under two different head coaches. In 2001, when Tech went 8-5 and played in the Seattle Bowl, Cook helped coach the Yellow Jacket defensive backs and special teams under head coach George O'Leary. In 2002, Cook coached tight ends under head coach Chan Gailey and helped Tech produce a 7-6 record and a Silicon Valley Classic appearance. In 2003, Cook worked with the safeties for a team that advanced to the Humanitarian Bowl.

A 1998 graduate of Ithaca, Cook coached the Bomber wide receivers in 1999 before working as a defensive assistant at Lafayette in 2000.

Cook was a four-year Dean's List student at Ithaca, earning a bachelor's degree in health and physical education in December, 1998, graduating Magna Cum Laude, and completing his master's degree in exercise science in September, 2000.

At Ithaca, Cook lettered in both football and lacrosse, earning all-conference honors in lacrosse as a defenseman. Cook was a starting strong safety on the gridiron when Ithaca captured ECAC championships in 1996 and 1998.

Originally from upstate New York, Cook and wife, Julia, have two children, son, Jackson, and daughter, Reagan.

Andy McCOLLUM
Linebackers/
Recruiting Coordinator
4th Season at Georgia Tech
Austin Peay State (1981)

Andy McCollum, who has been an assistant or head coach in college football for 31 years, enters his fourth season at Georgia Tech as recruiting coordinator and a coach on the defensive side of the ball.

A native of Marietta (Ga.), McCollum, who supervises Tech's recruiting efforts, moved to coaching linebackers mid-way through the 2012 season after coaching the defensive line his first 2.5 years on the Flats.

Last season, McCollum's defensive line helped the Yellow Jackets improve statistically in rushing defense, scoring defense and sacks. Under McCollum's guidance, starters Izaan Cross and T.J. Barnes enjoyed outstanding senior seasons. Cross was invited to play in the East-West Shrine Game and Barnes was selected to participate in the NFL Combine.

After Game 6, McCollum moved to coaching inside linebackers, where he saw Jabari Hunt-Days earn first team Freshmen All-American honors and Quayshawn Nealy earn ACC Linebacker of the Week honors.

In his first season at Georgia Tech, McCollum helped to install the 3-4 defense. Faced with the task of players learning a completely new system, McCollum helped mold the defensive line into a solid front.

McCollum came to the Flats after serving three seasons (2007-09) as linebackers coach at NC State, where he was a part of Wolfpack head coach Tom O'Brien's initial coaching staff. NC State participated in the 2008 Papajohns.com Bowl.

McCollum coached three Wolfpack linebackers who were drafted and went on to play in the NFL -- Nate Irving, Terrell Manning and Audie Cole.

Prior to his tenure at NC State, McCollum spent one season in the NFL as an advance scout for the Tennessee Titans in 2006.

McCollum served as head coach at Middle Tennessee State for seven seasons (1999-2005), helping the Blue Raider program make the transition from a struggling I-AA squad to a successful I-A program that competed against BCS opponents 26 times during his tenure. MTSU set 84 school records with McCollum at the helm. In 2000, McCollum led the Blue Raiders to a 6-5 record, their first winning record as a I-A program, including back-to-back wins over Connecticut and South Florida by a combined score of 111-19.

His 2001 MTSU squad finished 8-3, won the Sun Belt Conference championship, and ranked fifth nationally in offense. In 2005, the Blue Raider defense ranked ninth nationally. In 2002, 2004 and 2005 he brought in what were considered the top recruiting classes in the Sun Belt Conference. McCollum was named Coach of the Year by the Tennessee Sports Writers Association in 2000 and 2001.

From 1994 to 1998, McCollum worked at Baylor in a variety of roles. In 1995 and 1996 he served as associate head coach, defensive coordinator and coach of the special teams. In '94, the Bears participated in the Alamo Bowl. In 1995, the Bear defense ranked fifth nationally in total defense, fifth in pass defense and ninth in scoring defense.

From 1989 to 1992, McCollum worked as an assistant coach at UTEP. He coached the Miners' wide receivers and special teams in 1989 before moving over to defense to coach the linebackers and special teams from 1990-93.

From 1981 to 1988, McCollum was an assistant coach at Middle Tennessee State. In 1984 and 1985 the Blue Raiders advanced to the Division I-AA playoffs.

Before embarking on a coaching career, McCollum was a four-year starter (offensive guard and tight end) at Austin Peay State from 1977 to 1980. He led the Governors in receptions in 1979 and was a starter on the '77 Ohio Valley Conference championship team.

McCollum earned his undergraduate degree from Austin Peay State in 1981, and his master's from Middle Tennessee State in 1983.

McCollum was born (March 1, 1959) in Marietta (Ga.), where he played football at Marietta High School. He was inducted into the Marietta High School Hall of Fame.

McCollum has two children: Drew and Andrea.

Lamar OWENS

A-Backs
6th Season at Georgia Tech
Maryland (2008)
@owenlamar

Lamar Owens begins his fourth season as coach of the A-Backs and his sixth season on the Georgia Tech coaching staff.

Owens has developed a number of A-backs into dependable ball-carriers and receivers.

Former Yellow Jacket Orwin Smith rushed for 1,839 yards under Owens, and his average of 9.3 yards per carry is the highest ever for an Atlantic Coast Conference running back with at least 1,000 career yards.

Owens also coached 1,000-yard rushers Roddy Jones and Embry Peeples.

Under Owens, Tech senior Robert Godhigh has developed from a walk-on into a starter and a big-play threat. Godhigh led the team last season in touchdown receptions.

Last season Georgia Tech ranked fourth nationally in rushing offense -- the fifth consecutive season the Yellow Jackets have ranked in the top four nationally in rushing offense. Tech set school records for rushing yards and total offense yards while averaging a school-record 40.0 points per game in conference play.

In 2011, Smith, Peeples and Jones combined for more than 1,500 rushing yards and nearly 600 receiving yards. Smith averaged 10.2 yards per carry and Tech broke an NCAA single-game record with an average of 12.1 yards per offensive play against Kansas.

The A-backs played a significant role in Georgia Tech leading the ACC in rushing offense, scoring offense and total offense in 2011.

In 2010, Owens' group of young A-backs combined for 11 touchdowns -- nine via rushing and two by receiving. As a team, the Yellow Jackets led the nation in rushing for the first time in school history.

Owens, who played for Paul Johnson at the U.S. Naval Academy, followed Johnson to Georgia Tech in 2008.

Prior to being named a full-time assistant coach, Owens spent the previous two seasons (2008 and 2009) as a staff assistant. He served in the role of Offensive Quality Control Coach in 2008 and he held the position of Offensive Graduate Assistant the following year. In each of Owens' first two seasons on the Flats, the Yellow Jackets led the ACC in total offense while ranking in the top five nationally in rushing offense.

In 2009, Owens worked with the Yellow Jacket quarterbacks, including Joshua Nesbitt, Jaybo Shaw and Tevin Washington. The 2009 season saw Nesbitt rush for 1,037 yards and 18 touchdowns. Nesbitt also accumulated 1,701 yards through the air with 10 touchdowns while leading the Yellow Jackets to an ACC Championship Game and a BCS bowl game. Capping off a record-setting year, Nesbitt was honored as the 2009 ACC first team quarterback.

As a graduate assistant at Georgia Tech, Owens was responsible for the breakdown of opponent game film, compiling scouting reports and preparing game plans. He also coordinated defensive and special teams scout teams and had an active role in on-campus recruiting visits.

A native of Savannah, Ga., Owens graduated from Benedictine Military School in 2002 before moving on to the Naval Academy. After completing his football career, Owens enrolled in the University of Maryland in the fall of 2007 and graduated in May of 2008.

In 2005, Owens directed a Navy offense that averaged 34.2 points and a nation's best 319.3 yards per game on the ground as the Midshipmen went 8-4, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy and won a bowl game in consecutive years (beat Colorado State, 51-30) for the first time in school history. Owens was named All-East as he rushed for 880 yards and threw for 1,229 yards, breaking four school records for total offense and passing yards per attempt and completion.

Owens is married to the former Lindsey Vincent.

Mike PELTON

Defensive Line
1st Season at Georgia Tech
Auburn (1999)

A veteran coach with 13 years of experience coaching defense on the collegiate level, Mike Pelton begins his first season at Georgia Tech as coach of the defensive line.

Georgia Tech returns eight starters on defense, but two of those starters not returning – end Izaan Cross and tackle T.J. Barnes – were on the defensive line.

Pelton spent the previous two seasons at Auburn, his alma mater, where he coached the Tigers' defensive line.

Pelton is reunited with Georgia Tech defensive coordinator Ted Roof, who headed the Auburn defense in the Tigers' run to the national championship following the 2010 season.

Prior to returning to his alma mater in 2011, Pelton coached defensive lines at Louisiana-Lafayette (January-March, 2011), Vanderbilt (2010), Iowa State (2007-08), Troy (2001-06) and Valdosta State (2000).

A native of Goshen, Ala., Pelton spent the 2008 and 2009 seasons at Iowa State working under Gene Chizik. Pelton's defensive lines were an area of strong improvement in his two seasons with the Cyclones. Pelton mentored a pair of second-team All-Big 12 selections at Iowa State in nose guard Ahtyba Rubin and defensive end Kurtis Taylor. Rubin went on to become a starter for the Cleveland Browns after being selected in the sixth round of the 2008 NFL draft.

Prior to working under Chizik at Iowa State, Pelton spent six years under Larry Blakeney on the staff at Troy, including the final two years as co-defensive coordinator.

The Troy defense was consistently among the nation's leaders in several categories. In 2002, the Trojans ranked fourth nationally, allowing just 277 total yards per game. In 2004, the Trojans ranked 16th in total defense.

Pelton worked with two of the most prolific defensive linemen in Troy history, Demarcus Ware and Osi Umenyiora. A six-year NFL veteran, Ware is a five-time Pro Bowler and three-time All-Pro linebacker with Dallas. Umenyiora is a two-time Pro Bowl defensive end for the New York Giants.

Prior to going to Troy, Pelton coached the defensive line at Valdosta State (Ga.) University in 2000. The Blazers posted a 10-2 record and made the NCAA Division II playoffs.

As a player at Auburn, Pelton was a standout defensive tackle, earning first team All-SEC recognition in 1994. A four-year letterman from 1991-94, Pelton was a co-captain as a senior and helped the Tigers win a school-record 20 consecutive games from 1993-94. Auburn posted an 11-0 record in 1993, finishing fourth in the Associated Press poll. The Tigers went 9-1-1 the following season in 1994, finishing ninth in the AP top 25.

As a senior in 1994, Pelton recorded 10.0 sacks which tied for fourth-most in a single-season in Auburn history. Pelton finished his career with 294 tackles, 18 tackles for loss and 15 sacks.

Pelton was a fifth-round pick of the Kansas City Chiefs in the 1995 NFL Draft.

He graduated from Auburn in 1999 with a degree in Health & Sports Science.

Pelton and his wife, Staci, are the parents of three daughters: Myesa, Tyra and Peyton.

Al "Buzz" PRESTON

Wide Receivers
6th Season at Georgia Tech
Hawai'i (1982)
@CoachBuzzPres

Al "Buzz" Preston, who has enjoyed success from Honolulu to South Bend, begins his sixth season in Atlanta as Georgia Tech's wide receivers coach.

In just five seasons on the Flats, Preston has developed three NFL wide receivers -- Demaryius Thomas (Denver Broncos), Stephen Hill (New York Jets) and Kevin Cone (Atlanta Falcons).

Thomas was an NFL first-round draft pick in 2010, while Hill was chosen early in the second round in 2012.

Thomas, who made remarkable strides under Preston, left Tech as one of the most prolific receivers in Georgia Tech history. In just three seasons Thomas caught 120 passes for 2,339 yards (fourth-most in Tech history) while averaging 19.5 yards per reception. Thomas had 15 career touchdown receptions and caught at least one pass in 29 consecutive games.

Hill collected more than 1,200 career receiving yards to go with nine touchdown receptions. As a junior in 2011, he led the nation in yards per reception (29.3).

Hill teamed with Tyler Melton in 2011 to give Tech a solid duo at wide receiver.

With Hill's early departure to the NFL, Preston faced an interesting situation entering the 2012 season -- he had no receivers with a career reception. Under Preston's guidance, however, two sophomores and a true freshman combined for 563 yards receiving and two touchdowns.

The wide receivers played a large role in Georgia Tech breaking the school record for total offense yards in a season.

Since Preston's arrival, Tech has led the ACC in total offense three times (2008, 2009 and 2011).

Preston came to Tech after serving one season at New Mexico, where he helped lead the Lobos to their first bowl victory in more than 45 years. As New Mexico's running backs coach in 2007, Preston coached Lobo junior running back Rodney Ferguson, who earned first team All-Mountain West Conference honors for the second straight year after rushing for 1,177 yards and 13 touchdowns.

Preston has 33 seasons of collegiate coaching experience, including two stints at Stanford (1999-2001, 2006). During his first three-year run with the Cardinal, Preston was part of two bowl teams that were also two of the best squads in Stanford history. He helped coach the Cardinal to the 1999 Pac-10 title on its way to the 2000 Rose Bowl. In 2001, Stanford put together a 9-3 record and was ranked among the top 10 teams in the nation during the year before playing in the Seattle Bowl against Georgia Tech.

Following his three seasons at Stanford, Preston went with coach Tyrone Willingham to Notre Dame for three more seasons (2002-04) to coach the running backs and serve as special teams coordinator. He helped lead the Irish to two bowl games with appearances in the Gator Bowl in 2002 and the Insight Bowl following the 2003 regular season.

Under Preston's tutelage, Julius Jones rushed for 1,268 yards and 10 touchdowns as a senior at Notre Dame in 2003. Jones also had 1,568 all-purpose yards and a school-record three 200-yard rushing games in '03 en route to honorable mention All-America honors. Jones went on to be selected in the second round of the 2004 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys. In 2002, Irish running back Ryan Grant eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark as well.

Before coming to Stanford for the first time, Preston was the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator/QB coach at UNLV in 1998. Prior to that, he coached running backs at Washington State from 1994-97. During his four-year term at Washington State, Preston was part of a coaching staff that guided the Cougars to the Pac-10 Conference championship in 1997 and its first Rose Bowl appearance in 67 years. The Cougar offense broke the Pac-10 record for most total yards in a single season.

One of Preston's pupils, Mike Black, gained 1,157 yards rushing and was named All-Pac 10. The Cougars finished 10-2 overall and were ranked ninth in the nation.

Preston also coached at his alma mater, Hawai'i, from 1987-93, when he served on the same coaching staff with Paul Johnson. He had several roles during his tenure with the Rainbows, including coaching the offensive special teams, receivers and defensive backs, while also serving as the strength and conditioning liaison. Preston's seven-year stay at Hawai'i was highlighted by the first two bowl games in school history and the first Western Athletic Conference title ever for the program. In 1989, Hawai'i participated in its first bowl game, losing to Michigan State in the Aloha Bowl. The Rainbows won the WAC championship in 1992 and went on to defeat Illinois in the Holiday Bowl.

Preston's first full-time coaching job came at Southern Illinois from 1984-86 when he tutored receivers and the defensive backfield. During his three seasons in Carbondale, SIU's defense improved dramatically -- from eighth to second in the conference -- while nine of his pupils received all-conference recognition.

He was a graduate assistant at Hawai'i in 1980 and 1981, a part-time coach at UH in 1982, and a graduate assistant at Washington in 1983. During his career, Preston has also been a guest coach for the Toronto Argonauts, Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Miami Dolphins and Philadelphia Eagles.

A native of Los Angeles, Preston received a bachelor's degree in speech from Hawai'i in 1982. He was a two-year letterwinner (1978-79) with the Rainbow football team. Preston is a 1975 graduate of Banning High School in Los Angeles.

Preston and his wife, Audrey, have three children: Amber, Evan and Quinn.

Ted ROOF

Defensive Coordinator
5th Season at Georgia Tech
Georgia Tech (1986)
@coachedtroof

Ted Roof returned to his alma mater in January to begin his second stint as the Yellow Jackets' defensive coordinator.

Roof, one of the most-respected defensive minds in college football, has strong ties to Georgia Tech.

He was a four-year letterwinner as a linebacker under head coach Bill Curry from 1982-85. As a senior, Roof was co-captain and a first team All-ACC selection on a team that finished 9-2-1 and defeated Michigan State in the All-American Bowl. He was named All-American and first team All-ACC.

Roof remains one of the most prolific tacklers in Yellow Jackets history with 417 career tackles. He made 25 tackles in one game against Tennessee in 1985.

Roof was enshrined into the Georgia Tech Athletics Hall of Fame in 1998.

Roof returned to Georgia Tech in 1998 to serve as linebackers coach under head coach George O'Leary. He was promoted to defensive coordinator in 1999 and held that position for three years. The Yellow Jackets shared an ACC title in '98 and played in a bowl game all four years during Roof's tenure.

A native of Lawrenceville (Ga.), Roof attended Central Gwinnett High School.

Roof returned to Georgia Tech after serving the 2012 season as defensive coordinator at Penn State, where he worked under another former Yellow Jacket assistant coach, Bill O'Brien.

The Nittany Lions exceeded all expectations by posting an 8-4 record. Roof's defense ranked second in the Big Ten Conference in scoring defense (19.1 ppg), first in sacks (34), first in red-zone defense and third in turnover margin.

Nationally, Penn State ranked tied for first in red-zone defense, 15th in sacks, 16th in scoring defense, 23rd in rushing defense, 28th in pass efficiency defense and 29th in total defense.

Two of the Big Ten's top six tacklers were Nittany Lions – Gerald Hodges and Michael Mauti. Hodges was named first team all-conference and Mauti was named the Butkus-Fitzgerald Linebacker of the Year.

Prior to working at Penn State, Roof was the defensive coordinator at Auburn for three years, including the Tigers' BCS national championship season in 2010.

In 2010 at Auburn, Roof's defense ranked ninth nationally in rushing defense and 16th in tackles for loss. In the BCS Championship game, the Tigers (14-0) held Oregon to 19 points – 28 points below the Ducks' season average.

Prior to coaching at Auburn, Roof spent the 2008 season as defensive coordinator at Minnesota. In just one season under Roof, the Gophers made significant improvements on defense, allowing 160 fewer passing yards and 135 fewer total yards per game compared to the previous season. Minnesota improved from 1-11 to 7-6 in 2008, capped by an appearance in the Insight Bowl.

From 2004 to 2007, Roof served as head coach at Duke after working as the Blue Devils' defensive coordinator in 2002 and 2003. He was promoted to interim head coach midway through the 2003 season after head coach Carl Franks was fired.

In 2001, the year before Roof arrived in Durham, Duke ranked 113th nationally (out of 115) in rushing defense. In Roof's first season at Duke in 2002, the Blue Devils ranked first in the ACC in that category.

Roof's coaching career began as a graduate assistant at Alabama in 1987 and 1988. After one year as linebackers coach at West Georgia, he moved to Duke to coach linebackers from 1990 to 1993. Other coaching stops included 1994-96 (defensive coordinator in '95-'96) at Massachusetts and 1997 (defensive coordinator) at Western Carolina before returning to Tech in 1998.

In all, Roof has coached 26 years on the collegiate level. More than 50 players that he has coached went on to sign NFL contracts.

Roof will inherit a Georgia Tech defense that returns eight starters from a unit that struggled early in 2012 before making great strides the second half of the season. The Yellow Jackets closed the season by shutting out Florida State in the second half of the ACC Championship game and holding Southern California to just seven points in the Hyundai Sun Bowl.

Roof and wife, Pam Ash-Roof, have twin boys, Terrence and Michael.

Mike SEWAK
Offensive Line
6th Season at Georgia Tech
Virginia (1981)
@coachmikesewak

Mike Sewak, who has coached on the college level for 29 years including four years as head coach at Georgia Southern, enters his sixth year at Georgia Tech as coach of the offensive line.

Sewak, in his first four seasons at Tech, worked primarily with the guards and centers. He begins his second season coaching the entire offensive line.

Since Sewak arrived at Tech in 2008, six Yellow Jacket offensive linemen have earned first-team All-ACC honors: Andrew Gardner in 2008, Sean Bedford and Cord Howard in 2009, Bedford in 2010 and Omoregie Uzzi in 2011 and 2012. Uzzi earned All-American honors in 2012 and 2013.

Bedford, who came to Georgia Tech as a walk-on defensive lineman, blossomed under Sewak into a two-time first team All-ACC performer.

Over the last five years, the offensive line has helped pave the way for remarkable numbers put up by the Yellow Jackets. In each of the last five years, Tech has ranked in the top four nationally in rushing offense. Over the last five years combined, the Yellow Jackets have rushed for more than 20,000 yards -- more than any team in college football.

Tech led the ACC in total offense in 2008, 2009 and 2011. In 2009, the Jackets ranked second nationally in rushing offense. In 2010, Tech ranked first nationally in rushing for the first time in school history. In 2011, the Yellow Jackets ranked second in the nation.

Sewak, Johnson's offensive coordinator at Georgia Southern from 1997 to 2001, replaced Johnson as head coach of the Eagles in 2002. He produced a record of 35-14 as Georgia Southern's head coach and led the Eagles to three NCAA Division I-AA playoffs appearances and two Southern Conference championships. He was named the 2004 Southern Conference Coach of the Year.

In his first season as head coach in 2002, Sewak led Georgia Southern to the I-AA semifinals and within a last-second missed field goal of the national championship game. The Eagles finished the season with an 11-3 record, won the school's sixth consecutive league title and made their fifth straight national semifinals appearance. In addition, Sewak's offense led the nation in rushing, averaging 386.2 yards per game.

Georgia Southern followed with an uncharacteristic 7-4 mark in 2003, a season which saw Sewak valiantly sidestep adversity and numerous key injuries to guide GSU to victories in six of its last eight games and earn his second straight rushing title as a head coach with a 335.6 yards per game average.

Sewak put GSU back on track in 2004. Georgia Southern rolled through the regular season with an offensive juggernaut, averaging 47 points per game and winning eight games in a row between losses to I-A Georgia and Southern Conference co-champion Furman, the No. 2 ranked team in I-AA.

While young on both sides of the ball in 2005, Georgia Southern led I-AA in rushing again. After a 1-2 start, the Eagles won seven of their last eight games to clinch an at-large playoff bid. The only loss during that stretch was to Appalachian State, the Southern Conference champion and the No. 2 seed in the I-AA playoffs. Sewak also led the Eagles to a win over Furman when the Paladins were ranked No. 1 in the country.

As offensive coordinator under Johnson at Georgia Southern from 1997 to 2001, Sewak's offensive unit consistently ranked as one of the nation's best at the NCAA Division I-AA level during the five-year span. After finishing second in rushing offense, total offense and scoring offense in 1998, the Eagles improved to a first-place national standing in all three categories in 1999 -- averaging 419.0 rushing yards, 551.7 total yards and 50.0 points per game.

In all, as Georgia Southern's offensive coordinator from 1997 to 2001, the Eagles rolled to a 62-10 mark, scored 2,855 points (39.7 ppg), picked up 25,941 rushing yards

(360.3 ypg), 7,816 passing yards (108.6 ypg) and 33,757 total yards (468.8 ypg). Sewak also played a key role in helping lead Georgia Southern to five straight Southern Conference championships and NCAA Division I-AA playoff appearances, three national championship games and two national titles in 1999 and 2000.

In addition, three Georgia Southern offensive linemen earned All-America honors under his direct guidance from 1997 to 2001. Guard Mark Williams, who also was the recipient of back-to-back Southern Conference Jacob's Blocking Trophies in '97 and '98, tackle Rich McGrath and center Matt Winslette all earned national honors under Sewak's leadership.

During his time at Georgia Southern, Sewak took an active role in the community, serving as a member of the Parent-Teacher Organization (PTO) in the Bulloch County (Ga.) School District. He kept ties with the Special Olympics program, serving as a volunteer in various capacities. He also instilled a community relations leadership role for his players who spent many lunch and reading sessions with children at Statesboro's Mill Creek Elementary School and donated their time to the March of Dimes Walk America and "Operation Cleanup".

Sewak was appointed as the honorary chairperson of the Keep Bulloch Beautiful campaign in February, 2002, and was selected to a similar capacity for the 2003 Bulloch County's Walk America in January.

Prior to his second stint at Georgia Southern, Sewak helped turn around a struggling program at Ohio University as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach under current Wake Forest head coach Jim Grobe in 1995 and 1996. The Bobcats, after going 0-11 prior to Sewak's arrival, went 2-8-1 in '95 before posting a 6-6 record in 1996 -- the school's best mark since 1982. Sewak directed an offensive unit which ranked first in the Mid-America Conference in rushing with a 274.0 per game average.

Prior to Ohio, Sewak spent eight years as an assistant coach at Hawai'i, where he coached the Warriors' offensive line for seven seasons and the wide receivers for one. During his tenure in Honolulu, Hawai'i won the 1992 Western Athletic Conference championship, broke more than 150 offensive records, and finished among the nation's offensive leaders each year, averaging 31.7 points and 418 yards per game.

Sewak's first stint at Georgia Southern came as an assistant coach with the Eagles in 1985 and 1986 when he worked under coach Erk Russell. Sewak coached the running backs and the defensive backs on national championship teams in 1985 and 1986, respectively. The Eagles captured their first two NCAA Division I-AA titles those seasons, recording consecutive 13-2 records.

Sewak's first association with Georgia Tech came in 1984 when he served as a graduate assistant tight ends coach under head coach Bill Curry.

A native of Johnstown, Pa., Sewak began his career in 1982 at Hobart (N.Y.) College where he served as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

A three-year letterman as an offensive lineman at Virginia, Sewak earned a degree in psychology from UVA in 1981. He was invited to tryouts with the Baltimore Colts and Pittsburgh Steelers after the completion of his collegiate playing eligibility. Sewak added a masters degree in the spring of 2008 from Georgia Southern.

He and his wife, the former Robin Farnery of Marietta, Ga., are the parents of three children -- Michael Robert, Olivia and Nicholas.

Joe SPEED

Defensive Backs
4th Season at Georgia Tech
U.S. Naval Academy (1996)
@ramblinspeed

Joe Speed begins his fourth season at Georgia Tech and his first coaching the Yellow Jacket defensive backs.

The previous three seasons, Speed coached inside linebackers. Midway through the 2012 season, he moved over to coach the outside linebackers.

In his first two seasons in Atlanta, Speed helped to install the 3-4 defense.

Under Speed's guidance, inside linebacker Quayshawn Nealy has developed into one of the top ILB's in the ACC. Last season, redshirt freshman Jabari Hunt-Days started from Day One and emerged as one of the top defensive rookies in the nation.

Former Yellow Jacket inside linebacker Julian Burnett emerged as one of the most prolific tacklers in recent Tech history. In 2011, Burnett had a team-high 120 tackles -- 42 more tackles than any player on the team. Burnett also had 9.5 tackles for loss and he forced and recovered fumbles as a junior in 2011.

The previous season, two of Speed's inside linebackers -- Burnett and senior Brad Jefferson -- ranked one-two on the team with a combined 173 tackles. Under Speed, Burnett went from a back-up in September to leading the team with 89 tackles.

Speed came to Georgia Tech from the U.S. Naval Academy, his alma mater, where he worked six seasons under head coach Paul Johnson.

In his final four seasons at Navy, Speed coached the Midshipmen defensive backs and also served as head coach of the junior varsity team.

Speed was part of a staff that brought the Midshipmen back into the national spotlight with a 61-29 record over his last seven years.

In 2009 Navy won 10 games (10-4) and defeated Missouri in the Texas Bowl. The Midshipmen defeated Army and Air Force to capture the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy and the Navy defense ranked 18th nationally in scoring defense, allowing less than 20 points per game.

In 2008, Speed helped first-year head coach Ken Niumatalolo to one of the most successful seasons for a first-year head coach in school history. The Mids posted an 8-5 record in 2008, which is the best mark for a first-year head coach at Navy since 1934. The eight wins qualified the Midshipmen for the EagleBank Bowl. Navy earned a 24-17 victory over 16th-ranked Wake Forest, which was Navy's first win over a team ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 since 1985, as well as Navy's victory the previous week over Rutgers. It was the first time since 1981 that Navy beat teams currently in the BCS in back-to-back weeks. Navy also defeated a program-record four bowl teams.

The 2007 season -- Johnson's final campaign in Annapolis -- was a memorable one as well as the Midshipmen posted an 8-5 record, won a school-record fifth-consecutive Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, appeared in a school-record fifth-straight bowl game, and defeated Notre Dame for the first time since 1963. Safety Ketric Buffin became the first player in school history to intercept a pass in each of the first four games of the season.

In 2006 one of Speed's pupils, Keenan Little, became the first player in Navy history to score a defensive touchdown in both Service Academy games in the same year as Navy once again won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy and participated in a bowl game.

Speed returned to the Naval Academy after a two-year hiatus at the Naval Academy Prep School in Newport, R.I., where he served as the Director of Athletics for two seasons and as the head football coach for one year.

Before going to the prep school, Speed had a successful military tour at the United States Naval Academy as a Captain in the United States Marine Corps.

In his first stint at Navy, Speed served as the Executive Administrator and Military Liaison Officer for the football team, while serving to recruit future Marine Officers, as well. Speed's military duties involved the supervision of various administrative, logistical, and professional matters pertaining to the football team and the Naval Academy Athletic Association.

On the field, Speed served as the assistant linebackers coach and head junior varsity coach. He coached four seasons at Navy and in 2003, helped guide the football team to an impressive 8-5 record, which included capturing the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy and an appearance in the 2003 Houston Bowl.

A 1996 graduate of the Naval Academy, Speed was a standout on the gridiron for the Midshipmen. A four-year starter at safety, he finished his career with 260 tackles and five interceptions.

Following graduation, Speed was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps and reported to Quantico, Va., where he trained and took the Infantry Officers Course.

In September of 1997, he reported to GOLF Company, 2nd Battalion, 7th Marines in Twenty-Nine Palms, Calif., and in July of 1998, went to Okinawa, Japan, for six months, where he was involved in exercise FOAL EAGLE in Korea. After working with the Army in Fort Erwin, Calif., for a month, Speed went to Africa for three months on a security mission for the U.S. Embassy in Nairobi, Kenya.

Speed, and his wife, Ingrid, reside in Atlanta.

Dave WALKOSKY
Special Teams Coordinator
2nd Season at Georgia Tech
Toledo (1992)

Dave Walkosky, who has previously worked as a head coach and assistant coach on the collegiate level, and more recently as an assistant in the Canadian Football League, enters his second season as Georgia Tech's special teams coach.

Walkosky is the first special teams-only coach in Paul Johnson's tenure as the Yellow Jacket head coach.

In Walkosky's first season on the Flats, the Yellow Jackets made great strides in special teams despite mid-season injuries to the starting punter and kicker. For much of the 2012 season, Tech used a non-scholarship kicker and a true freshman punter.

Tech ranked 16th nationally in punt returns (12.6 yards per return) after ranking 61st the previous season. The Jackets ranked 25th nationally in kick returns after ranking 108th in 2011. Tech also ranked 14th nationally in punt return defense.

Prior to the 2012 season, Georgia Tech had not returned a kickoff for a touchdown since 1998, yet the Yellow Jackets returned two kicks for scores -- both by sophomore Jamal Golden -- in 2012. Golden finished the season ranked third in the ACC in both kickoff and punt return average, and he was the only player in the nation to rank in the top 10 of both categories nationally.

Three Yellow Jacket kickers combined to make 11-of-18 field goal attempts. On kickoffs, David Scully had 21 touchbacks. The previous season, Tech kickers had just eight touchbacks.

Midway through the 2012 season, Walkosky also coached the Yellow Jacket defensive line and contributed to Tech's defense making significant improvements the final half of the season. Over the final eight games of the season, Tech averaged a sack every 12 pass attempts. The defense held Florida State scoreless in the second half of the ACC Championship Game, then limited USC to seven points total on the Hyundai Sun Bowl.

Walkosky came to the Flats after serving one season (2011) as linebackers coach for the Calgary Stampeders. After helping lead the Stampeders to an 11-7 record, he was promoted in the off-season to defensive coordinator.

Prior to working in the CFL, Walkosky spent 19 years on the college level as a Division II head coach and Division I defensive coordinator and assistant coach.

From 2008-10, Walkosky served as head coach of Division II Tiffin University in Ohio.

Among the players Walkosky recruited to Tiffin was Chris Ivory, who now plays running back in the NFL for the New Orleans Saints.

Before his three-year stint as Tiffin's head coach, Walkosky spent one season (2007) as special teams coordinator and cornerbacks coach at Washington State.

Walkosky was an assistant coach at Toledo from 1999-2006, working with the linebackers, defensive backs and special teams. During his eight seasons at Toledo, the Rockets produced eight winning seasons, appeared in four bowl games, won two Mid-American Conference championships and six MAC West Division titles. In 2006, Toledo's defense led the MAC in both scoring defense and total defense, and Walkosky's defensive secondary intercepted 11 passes, three of which were returned for touchdowns.

While at Toledo, seven of his 15 special teams units were ranked in the top 15 nationally. The Rockets blocked 24 kicks in his eight seasons. In 2003, Toledo ranked third nationally in punt returns (16.1) and fifth in net punting (42.3).

Walkosky also enjoyed outstanding recruiting success while at Toledo. During his eight seasons with the Rockets, he recruited eight team captains. Walkosky recruited and coached Lance Moore, who has played in the NFL since 2005, and Bruce Gradkowski, a quarterback for the Cincinnati Bengals. At Toledo, Walkosky also coached Tennessee Titans punter Brett Kern and wide receiver/punt returner Andrew Hawkins.

Prior to working at his alma mater, Walkosky was an assistant coach at Memphis (1992-94), Waynesburg College (1995-96) and Tennessee-Martin (1997-98).

Walkosky wore a number of hats at Waynesburg. In addition to working as assistant football coach, he served as the head baseball coach and sports information director.

Walkosky began his playing career as a walk-on at Toledo, but quickly earned a scholarship in his first season with the Rockets and ultimately earned four varsity letters.

As a junior, he emerged with the starting job at safety and, as a senior in 1990, Walkosky was the second-leading tackler on a team that was the MAC co-champion.

A native of Steubenville, Ohio, Walkosky earned his bachelor's degree in education from Toledo. He holds a Master's degree in athletic administration from Memphis. Walkosky and wife, the former Dr. Wendy Batchelor, have four sons: Paulo, Nicolo, Matteo and Giano.

Jason
SNIDER
Director of Operations
6th Season at Georgia Tech
U.S. Naval Academy (1999)

Jason Snider is in his sixth year as Georgia Tech's Director of Football Operations.

In this position, Snider works closely with head coach Paul Johnson overseeing all aspects of the program's day-to-day support operations. Snider implements, builds, and develops the team budget, oversees business contracting, team travel, personnel, and facility upgrades and renovations. He also serves as the football liaison for the Football Coaches' Committee.

Snider came to Tech in January of 2008 as assistant director of football operations and was promoted to the director of operations seven months later.

A native of McArthur, Ohio, Snider received an appointment to the U.S. Naval Academy from Ohio Governor Ted Strickland. Snider went on to graduate from the Academy in 1999 with a degree in political science. As a Midshipman, Snider was a three-year varsity letterwinner and starting defensive tackle on the 1996 Aloha Bowl team. He later went on to become the 1998 defensive captain and member of the Annapolis Touchdown Club.

Following graduation, Snider served as the communications officer aboard USS Robert G. Bradley and Officer of the Deck aboard USS Harry S. Truman. On March 20, 2003, Snider was the acting Officer of the Deck aboard the Truman when the United States launched initial attacks against Iraq.

After his service in the Eastern Mediterranean Sea, Snider returned to the Naval Academy and worked on Paul Johnson's staff for two years, serving as director of football operations and assistant defensive line coach. In 2004, he helped mentor a Navy team that finished 10-2 and earned a win over New Mexico in the 2004 Emerald Bowl in San Francisco.

Prior to his arrival at Georgia Tech, Snider served as the athletic director at Jackson High School in Jackson, Ohio. In July of 2007, he was appointed to Rio Grande Community College's Board of Trustees. He is the owner of The Annapolis Co. and Mound Hill Farms.

Snider was married to the former Carrie King of Houston, Texas, in July 2011. The couple resides in Atlanta.

Assistant Director of Operations
6th Season at Georgia Tech
Dayton (2007)
@mikehuff

Mike Huff begins his third season as Assistant Director of Football Operations and his sixth year at Georgia Tech.

In addition to serving as the special assistant to the Director of Football Operations, Huff's duties include the organization of team travel, spring and preseason training camp, and assisting with the day to day operations of the program.

Huff has also played a creative role in the marketing of the football program, recruiting coordination and the use of social media by the coaching staff.

Huff joined the football staff in the fall of 2011 after spending the previous three seasons as a member of the Georgia Tech sports information staff. Prior to arriving at Tech, Huff worked six months in the UMass sports information office in 2008.

Huff holds a bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Dayton in 2007, and a master's degree in sport administration from Georgia State in 2010. He was a member of the University of Dayton soccer team from 2003-2006.

Huff, a Tulsa, Okla., native, is single and resides in Atlanta.

Matt GRIFFIN
Director of Player Personnel
1st Season at Georgia Tech
New Hampshire (1992)

Matt Griffin, a former successful head coach on the Division I level, is in his first season as Georgia Tech's director of player personnel.

Griffin comes to Georgia Tech after serving the 2012 season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Omaha Nighthawks of the UFL. Previously, he spent two years with the Jacksonville Jaguars as an offensive assistant in 2010 and offense quality control in 2011.

Griffin served as head coach at Tennessee-Martin from 2003 to 2006, and at Murray State from 2007 to 2009. Prior to Griffin's arrival at UT-Martin, the Skyhawks had not won a conference game in six years. Under Griffin, the team improved to 4-4 in the Ohio Valley Conference and 6-5 overall in 2005 - the Skyhawks' first winning season since 1993. Following the '05 season, Griffin was named the state of Tennessee's College Football Coach of the Year by the Tennessee Sports Writers Association.

Prior to working as a head coach, Griffin was on the staff at Maine from 1999-02, coaching the tight ends in 1999, and the offensive line from 2000-02. He also served as recruiting coordinator for the Black Bears in 2002. From 1992 through 1998, Griffin worked as an assistant coach at Plymouth State (1992-93), Richmond (1994), Northeastern (1995-96) and UT-Martin (1997-98).

A 1992 New Hampshire graduate, Griffin and wife, Lisa, have three children - Molly, Cullen and Garrett.

Mike
CASSANO
Assistant Director of
Player Personnel
1st Season at Georgia Tech
New Hampshire (1994)

A college football coaching veteran, Mike Cassano begins his first year as Georgia Tech's assistant director of player personnel.

Cassano returns to college football where he served as running backs coach at Miami in 2010. From 2007-09, he worked as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Florida International.

A 1994 graduate of New Hampshire, Cassano has previously worked at New Hampshire (defensive graduate assistant), Lehigh (defensive graduate assistant), Eastern Michigan (defensive graduate assistant), Brown (running backs coach in 1997), Massachusetts (running backs coach from 1998-2003) and Miami (offensive assistant from 2004-06).

Saeed KHALIF
Assistant Director of
Player Personnel
1st Season at Georgia Tech
Georgia Tech (1988)

Saeed Khalif, a former Georgia Tech football standout, returned to his alma mater in May to begin his tenure as assistant director of player personnel.

Khalif (known in college as Kyle Ambrose) played defensive line at Georgia Tech from 1984-86. Khalif was a member of Tech's "Black Watch Defense," a team captain and he was named first team All-ACC in 1986. Khalif, who played for head coach Bill Curry and helped lead the Yellow Jackets to a 9-2-1 record in 1985, was on the Denver Broncos roster in 1987.

Khalif returns to his alma mater after working the previous two years as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Savannah State. Previously, he served as head coach at Central High School in Newark, N.J., where he led CHS to back-to-back winning seasons.

Joe Hamilton Back At Tech

Joe Hamilton, one of the all-time greats in Georgia Tech football history, is back at home. In April, he joined the Yellow Jacket staff as a recruiting assistant.

Hamilton enjoyed a spectacular career as a four-year starter at quarterback for the Yellow Jackets from 1996-99. Georgia Tech's all-time leader in total offense (10,640 yards), Hamilton won the prestigious Davey O'Brien Award as the nation's top quarterback and finished second to Wisconsin's Ron Dayne in the voting for the 1999 Heisman Trophy.

Playing under then-head coach George O'Leary, Hamilton guided Tech to consecutive bowl victories and back-to-back wins over in-state rival Georgia.

Hamilton returns to his alma mater after serving the previous two years as an assistant coach under Bill Curry at Georgia State.

ANDERSON
Graduate Assistant Coach
2nd Season at Georgia Tech
Georgia Tech (2010)

Ben Anderson, a former blue collar defensive tackle for the Yellow Jackets, begins his second season on the Georgia Tech coaching staff as a graduate assistant.

Anderson works primarily with assistant coach Mike Pelton and the defensive line unit.

Anderson first arrived on the Flats in 2006 after a standout prep career at South Aiken (S.C.) High School. He played two seasons under then-head coach Chan Gailey before emerging as a key member of the defensive line under Paul Johnson in 2008. Anderson was a starter on Tech's ACC Coastal Division championship team in 2009 before suffering a knee injury in the regular season finale against Georgia. As a senior in 2010, Anderson moved to nose tackle in Tech's 3-4 scheme and overcame his knee injury to be a key contributor.

After graduating from Tech with a degree in business management in 2010, Anderson attended graduate school at South Carolina and helped coach at his high school alma mater.

Anderson is single and resides in Atlanta.

Dean
BUCHAN
Assistant Athletic Director/
Media Relations
7th Season at Georgia Tech
UNC-Wilmington (1987)
@deanbuchan

Dean Buchan enters his seventh season as Georgia Tech's Assistant Athletic Director for Media Relations. He oversees the media relations staff and serves as the primary media contact for the Yellow Jacket football program.

Buchan came to Georgia Tech in July, 2007 after serving seven years in a similar capacity at Wake Forest, where he worked directly with basketball coaches Dave Odom and the late Skip Prosser, and football coaches Jim Grobe and Jim Caldwell. He also coordinated All-America campaigns for Chris Paul and Josh Howard.

From 1990 to 2000, Buchan worked as sports information director at the University of Kansas, where his main responsibility was coordinating media efforts for head coach Roy Williams and the men's basketball program.

Prior to Kansas, Buchan worked three years (1987-90) as associate sports information director at East Carolina University. As a student at UNC-Wilmington, he served four years as an assistant in the Seahawk sports information office.

In 2011, Georgia Tech was named one of the top 10 press-box operations in college football by the Football Writers Association.

A native of Southern Pines (N.C.), Buchan graduated from UNCW in 1987. He is single and resides in Vinings.

Tom CONNER
Equipment Manager
22nd Season at Georgia Tech
Alabama (1980)

A familiar face in the Georgia Tech Athletic Association, Tom Conner is in his 22nd season as Georgia Tech's Equipment Manager.

A certified athletic equipment manager, Conner is responsible for procuring and maintaining all equipment and uniforms for the football program and also assists in ordering gear for Tech's other sports programs.

Conner came to Tech in 1992 after four years as the equipment manager at the United States Naval Academy. He also has experience at the professional level after serving four years (1982-86) as the head equipment manager for the Birmingham Stallions of the United States Football League.

He then worked one year (1987) as assistant equipment manager at Duke University before moving to Navy in 1988. Conner also spent two years as assistant equipment manager at the University of Missouri.

Conner earned his bachelor of science degree in physical education in 1980 from the University of Alabama, where he worked four years as a student manager for football.

Conner, who completed a two-year seat as a member of the Schutt Manufacturers Advisory Board, was honored as the AEMA District III Equipment Manager of the Year for 1997-98.

A native of Signal Mountain, Tenn., Conner is married to the former Pamela Bushman, and the couple has a 17-year-old son.

Steven Sylvester, a former standout linebacker for Georgia Tech under head coach Paul Johnson, is in his first season as a Yellow Jacket graduate assistant coach.

Sylvester is working with assistant coach Bryan Cook in coaching the B-backs.

As a player at Tech, Sylvester played in 52 career games, recorded 154 tackles, 19.5 tackles for loss, seven sacks and he caused four fumbles. He played as a true freshman in 2008 and was an instrumental part of the 2009 team that played in the ACC Championship Game and in the FedEx Orange Bowl.

Sylvester served as a team captain as a senior in 2011. A native of McDonough (Ga.), Sylvester was an all-star performer at Union Grove High School.

Sylvester is a 2011 Georgia Tech graduate with a degree in science, technology and culture. Born October 18, 1989 in Enterprise, Ala., Sylvester is single and lives in Atlanta.

Punt WINDHAM

Assistant Equipment Manager
11th Season at Georgia Tech
Georgia Tech (1994)

Punt Windham, coordinator of football equipment, begins his 11th season at Georgia Tech, his alma mater.

Windham, a certified equipment manager, handles the day-to-day operations of the football equipment room including handling and ordering equipment and uniforms, maintenance of equipment and travel logistics of the equipment.

Since coming back to his alma mater in 2003, Windham has been a part of 10 straight bowl appearances with the Yellow Jackets.

Prior to working at Georgia Tech, Windham served eight years at the University of Texas, where he served as head baseball equipment manager and assistant football equipment manager.

While in Austin, Windham worked with the Longhorn baseball team that captured the 2002 NCAA championship and also appeared in the 2000 College World Series.

Windham graduated from Georgia Tech in 1994 with a degree in industrial engineering. He worked as a student manager for the Yellow Jacket football team, which captured a share of the national championship in 1990.

Windham, 40, grew up in Lilburn, Ga., Windham and wife, Kim, were married in 2010.

ADMINISTRATION

Dr. G.P. "Bud" PETERSON
Institute President
5th Year at Georgia Tech

Since assuming the role as Georgia Tech's 11th president in 2009, Dr. G. P. "Bud" Peterson has engaged the Georgia Tech community in developing and implementing a 25-year strategic plan. He has realigned Tech's administrative units for greater effectiveness, championed efforts to strengthen the Institute's leadership in innovation, expanded strategic partnerships, and worked to maximize Tech's impact in the state, region, nation, and the world.

Launched in conjunction with Tech's strategic plan, "Designing the Future," Campaign Georgia Tech has raised more than $1.25 billion towards its goal of $1.5 billion. This generosity of Tech's many supporters will help the Institute realize its goals outlined in the strategic plan, add endowed chairs and professorships, scholarships and fellowships, and both renovate existing and build new facilities.

Georgia Tech continues to benefit from the generous philanthropic support and its many partnerships. In the past four years, renovations and new facilities on campus include the McCamish Pavilion, the Ken Byers Tennis Complex, the John and Mary Brock Football Practice Facility, the Zelnak Basketball Practice Facility, the Clough Undergraduate Learning Commons, and the Carbon Neutral Energy Solutions Lab. Now under construction is the Engineered Biosystems Building, which will extend Tech's vision for interdisciplinary research, addressing many of today's grand challenges in biomedical science and human health.

Under Peterson's leadership Georgia Tech is taking a leading role in creating an "Innovation Zone" in Midtown Atlanta that has attracted companies such as Panasonic, Penguin Computing and AT&T Mobility's Foundry. Technology Square is a high-energy hub, creating an exciting environment for innovation to flourish.

Tech's research strategy focuses on creating transformative opportunities, strengthening collaboration, and maximizing economic and societal impact. Georgia Tech remains among the top 10 in research expenditures among universities without a medical school, with $689 million in research expenditures in 2012.

Peterson is a champion of the G. Wayne Clough Georgia Tech Promise program, working to increase corporate and individual support. Tech Promise offers a debt-free Georgia Tech education to academically qualified Georgia residents from low-income families. More than 200 students were enrolled in the program this past year with an average family income of less than $21,000/year, and almost 600 students have participated to date.

Peterson came to Georgia Tech from the University of Colorado at Boulder, where he served as chancellor. Prior to that, he served as provost at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in New York; on the faculty and in leadership positions at Texas A&M University for 19 years; and he has worked at both NASA and the National Science Foundation (NSF).

Throughout his career, Peterson has played an active role in helping to establish the national education and research agendas, serving on numerous industry, government and academic task forces and committees. A distinguished scientist, he was appointed in 2008 by President George W. Bush to serve as a member of the National Science Board, which oversees the National Science Foundation and advises the President and Congress on national policy related to science and engineering research and education. In 2011, President Barack Obama appointed him to the Advanced Manufacturing Partnership steering committee.

Under his leadership, Georgia Tech was invited to become a member of the Association of American Universities (AAU), the first university to be invited to membership in ten years.

Peterson is a fellow of both the American Society of Mechanical Engineers (ASME) and the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics (AIAA), and received the AIAA Distinguished Service Award in 2011. His research has focused on phase change heat transfer in both the cooling of electronic devices and spacecraft thermal control. He is widely published, authoring or co-authoring 15 books or book chapters, 210 refereed journal articles, and more than 160 conference publications. He also holds nine patents with two others pending.

Peterson earned a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering, a second bachelor's degree in mathematics, and a master's degree in engineering, all from Kansas State University. While an undergraduate at Kansas State, Peterson lettered three years as a tight end/wide receiver for the Wildcats football team. He earned a PhD in mechanical engineering from Texas A&M University.

President Peterson is a tireless ambassador for Georgia Tech. He and his wife of 39 years, Val, represent Georgia Tech globally, nationally, and locally, speaking to government, business and industry, and community leaders, as well as to civic and community groups, faculty, staff, students, and alumni. He and Val have four adult children, two of which are Tech alumni.

Mike BOBINSKI
 Director of Athletics
 1st Year at Georgia Tech
 Notre Dame (1979)
 @GaTechAD

Mike Bobinski, who has successfully directed athletic departments at Akron and Xavier for a combined 20 years and has worked as a collegiate athletics administrator for 30 years, embarks on his first year as director of athletics at the Georgia Institute of Technology.

Bobinski will oversee an athletic department that includes 17 NCAA Division I varsity sports and is rich with athletic tradition and success.

Just the eighth Georgia Tech director of athletics over the past 110 years, Bobinski joins the likes of John Heisman, William Alexander, Bobby Dodd and Homer Rice who have served in the role previously.

Bobinski, whose tenure officially began April 1, 2013, served as chair of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee for the 2012-13 season. That successful role concluded with the 2013 Final Four, which coincidentally was held in Atlanta.

Bobinski came to Georgia Tech after serving 12 years as director of athletics at Cincinnati's Xavier University, where he also served as associate vice president. He was hired as the Musketeers' director of athletics in 1998 and remained in the role until 2004, when he was named associate vice president for development and oversaw all of the university's fundraising efforts, including major gifts, grant services and annual and planned giving. He returned as athletic director in 2006.

"We are very pleased to welcome Mike Bobinski to Georgia Tech as our new director of athletics," Georgia Tech president Dr. G.P. "Bud" Peterson said upon his hiring. "Mike's proven record of success and his diverse background in sports, finance and development, as well as his unwavering commitment to student-athletes, make him the ideal person to lead our athletic program."

At Xavier, Bobinski headed an athletic program that strived to excel in the classroom as well as on the playing fields and courts. In 2012, Xavier ranked 11th nationally in Division I Graduation Success Rates at 97 percent. In June of 2012, the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics named Bobinski the Under Armour Division I Northeast Athletic Director of the Year.

During his tenure, nine of Xavier's teams and numerous individuals competed in NCAA championship competitions. That includes men's basketball, which reached at least the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 in four of the last six years. In the same time span, 25 Xavier teams captured Atlantic 10 Conference championships.

In men's basketball, Xavier averaged 25 wins over Bobinski's 12 years, and earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament 10 times. The Musketeers advanced to the Elite Eight in 2004 and 2008. In addition, men's basketball extended its streak to 88 straight seniors that graduated. Women's basketball made runs to the NCAA Elite Eight in 2001 and again in 2010 and in 2011 achieved its highest national ranking in program history at No. 4.

In 2009, Bobinski hired Chris Mack as men's basketball head coach. He also hired Thad Matta as head men's basketball coach in 2001 and Sean Miller as Xavier's first associate head coach. Matta is now head coach at Ohio State and Miller has since taken over as head coach at Arizona. Bobinski also hired former women's basketball coach Kevin McGuff, who spent nine years at Xavier and is now head coach at Ohio State. He also oversaw the opening of The Cintas Center and other significant facility projects, including upgrades to soccer and baseball venues and the development of a golf practice facility.

Prior to joining Xavier, Bobinski served as the University of Akron's athletic director from 1994 to 1998. From 1989 to 1994, he was the associate director of athletics at the U.S. Naval Academy. Prior to that, Bobinski served as the associate and assistant business manager at the University of Notre Dame from 1984 to 1989.

As a licensed certified public accountant, he first went into accounting with Deloitte, Haskins and Sell and Arthur Young & Company from 1979-82. He also worked for the Walt Disney Company in Orlando from 1982-84 before moving into college athletics at UND in 1984.

Bobinski was hired at Georgia Tech following a three-month, nationwide search. A seven-member committee led by Stephen P. Zelnak Jr. advised Peterson and identified candidates. Bobinski took over for Dan Radakovich, who resigned in November (2012).

A native of Yaphank on Long Island, N.Y., Bobinski received his bachelor of business administration from Notre Dame in 1979, graduating magna cum laude, while playing four years for the Fighting Irish baseball team.

Bobinski has two children, Melissa, a 2009 Xavier graduate, and Brian, a 2012 Ohio State graduate.

Dr. Sue Ann BIDSTRUP ALLEN

Faculty Athletic Representative
25th Year at Georgia Tech
Massachusetts Institute of Technology (1981)

Dr. Sue Ann Bidstrup Allen, a professor in the School of Chemical and Biomolecular Engineering at Georgia Tech, was appointed as the Yellow Jackets' Faculty Executive Assistant in July 2009.

Dr. Bidstrup Allen received her S.B. in Chemical Engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1981. She then attended the University of Minnesota and received her Ph.D. in the field of Chemical Engineering in 1986. After a postdoctoral appointment in the Electrical Engineering Department at MIT, Dr. Bidstrup Allen joined Georgia Tech as an assistant professor in the School of Chemical Engineering in 1988, was appointed to the position of associate professor in 1994 and to the position of professor in 2000. She served as the Associate Chair of the School of Chemical Engineering from 2004 to 2005. In 2005, she was named Faculty Executive Assistant to the President by Dr. G. Wayne Clough and continued to serve in this position under Interim President Gary B. Schuster and President G.P. "Bud" Peterson until August 2009. In 2011, Dr. Bidstrup Allen was appointed Associate Dean of the College of Engineering.

Dr. Bidstrup Allen's main research focus is in the area of new materials and processes for microelectromechanical systems (MEMS) and for advanced interconnects for integrated circuits. She has advised nine postdoctoral fellows and has graduated 19 Ph.D. and 14 M.S. students. During her career, she has published approximately 100 refereed articles and has been issued 11 patents.

Dr. Bidstrup Allen is a recipient of the National Science Foundation Presidential Young Investigator Award, the DuPont Young Faculty Award, the 2008 American Society for Engineering Education (ASEE) Sharon Keillor Award, and the 2008 Council of Chemical Research (CCR) Diversity Award. She also received the Faculty Leadership Award from Georgia Tech in 1995 and the Packaging Research Center Educator of the Year Award in 2000. She is a Fellow of the Society of Plastics Engineers and is a member of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, the American Chemical Society, the Electrochemical Society and the American Society for Engineering Education.

Dr. Bidstrup Allen is married to Mark G. Allen, a professor in the School of Electrical and Computer Engineering at Georgia Tech. They have two children, David and Sarah.

BAMFORD

Ryan BAMFORD

Associate Athletic Director
3rd Year at Georgia Tech
Ithaca (2000)
@GTbammer24

Ryan Bamford, who worked in a variety of roles at Yale University for eight-plus years, begins his third year as Georgia Tech's Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations.

Bamford is responsible for the Athletic Association operational aspects of football and men's basketball. Other departments which report to him include sports medicine, player performance, facilities and game operations.

At Yale, Bamford served as Senior Associate Director of Athletics since 2007, supervising Bulldog sports including football, men's basketball, and men's and women's fencing. He coordinated internal operations for an athletic program with 35 varsity sports. Bamford was responsible for overseeing Yale's event management team, equipment operations, and the sports medicine and strength and conditioning units. In addition, he oversaw intercollegiate scheduling, game contract administration and team support services.

Bamford has served on a number of NCAA and Ivy League committees, including four years on the NCAA Division I Women's Lacrosse Committee, which he chaired in 2009 and 2010.

Prior to working at Yale, Bamford worked in the athletic department at Springfield College (2000-02). He has also previously served at the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC), Octagon Sports Marketing, Plymouth State and the University of New Hampshire.

A 2000 graduate of Ithaca College, Bamford was a stand-out basketball player for the Bombers. He left Ithaca as the school's all-time leader in single-season and career three-point field goals while finishing 13th on the career scoring list.

Bamford is single and resides in Atlanta.

2012 REVIEW

2012 SEASON REVIEW

Late-Season Run Earns Yellow Jackets 16th Straight Bowl Appearance, ACC Coastal Title

2012 Record: 7-7

ACC Record: 5-3; Coastal Division Champion
Home / Away / Neutral Record: 4-3 / 2-3 / 1-1
Last Game: Win vs. Southern California, 21-7

Georgia Tech brought the 2012 season to a close on a high note by making its third ACC Championship Game appearance since 2006 and beating Southern California in the Hyundai Sun Bowl.

The Yellow Jackets finished 7-7 overall, went 5-3 in the ACC to claim the Coastal Division title, and closed the season with five wins in their final eight games.

Following a tough road loss to Clemson that dropped Tech to 2-4, the team rattled off four-consecutive conference wins, including a 68-point outburst at North Carolina, to climb back in the ACC picture. The Jackets finished in a three-way tie atop the Coastal with Miami and UNC and would play in the ACC Championship Game.

Tech's defense came alive in the postseason, holding Florida State to 21 points in the ACC title game, and picking off USC three times en route to a 21-7 win in the Sun Bowl.

At 7-7, Tech reached at least seven wins for the fourth time in five years under Paul Johnson, and won the school's first bowl game since 2004.

NOTING TECH'S 2012 SEASON

- Georgia Tech led the ACC and owned the nation's fourth-leading rushing attack at 311.2 yards/game.
- After starting the season 2-4 (1-3 in the ACC), Georgia Tech finished strong with a 5-3 record over the final eight games -- including four consecutive ACC wins to claim the Coastal Division title and earn bowl eligibility.
- The victory over USC in the Hyundai Sun Bowl was Tech's 41st all-time bowl appearance, the team's 23rd all-time bowl win (23-18), and snapped a streak of seven straight losses in bowl games.

Tech played in the ACC Championship for the third time since the game's inception in 2005, and the second time under head coach Paul Johnson.

By ranking fourth nationally in rushing, it marked the fifth consecutive year that Tech had finished fourth or better in that category.

Tech led the ACC in both rushing and time of possession, and finished 35th or better nationally in 12 different statistical categories.

Tech finished with a +4 turnover margin, and the defense forced six turnovers over the final two games of the season combined (Florida State and Southern California).

Tech did not produce a 1,000-yard rusher, although five players rushed for more than 500 yards.

Two quarterbacks -- Tevin Washington and Vad Lee -- combined to rush for 1,228 yards.

Two B-backs -- Zach Laskey and David Sims -- combined to rush for 1,309 yards.

on 43 percent of them (63 touchdowns and 11 field goals).

- Tech rolled up 6,175 yards of total offense on the season, breaking the school record for total offense yards in a season. It marks the first time in school history the team surpassed 6,000 yards of total offense.

- With 4,357 yards rushing, Tech also set a new school record for rushing yards in a single-season.

- The Jackets rushed for more than 4,000 yards in a season for the fourth straight year.

- David Sims became the 40th player in Georgia Tech history to rush for 1,000 career yards. He has 1,368 career rushing yards heading to his senior season in 2013.

- Tech punted just two times in six different games.

- The Jackets finished the regular season by winning four straight ACC games – its longest conference win streak in a season since 2009.

- Tech posted a 7-7 record for the first time in school history, and the first .500 record since finishing 5-5-1 in 1986.

- All seven Georgia Tech losses came to teams that were bowl-eligible. Five of those teams played in bowl games. Miami was bowl-eligible, but self-imposed a bowl ban. Middle Tennessee State was 8-4, but did not get invited to a bowl.

TECH EARNS THIRD ACC TITLE GAME BERTH

Georgia Tech won its third ACC Coastal Division title, and the second in Paul Johnson's five seasons on the Flats. The Yellow Jackets earned the right to battle Florida State in the 2012 Dr Pepper ACC Championship Game.

At 5-3 in the division, Tech finished tied atop the division with Miami and North Carolina. But the decision by Miami to self-impose a postseason ban and UNC's probation made them both ineligible for title consideration.

The Jackets also claimed Coastal Division crowns in 2006 and 2009. Since divisional play began in 2005, Georgia Tech and Virginia Tech remain the only two teams to have claimed the Coastal, but this marks the first time the winner of the Tech/Tech regular season game didn't win the division.

ALL-CONFERENCE HONOREES

Senior guard Omoregie Uzzi was named first team All-ACC by both the media that cover the ACC and the league's 12 head coaches.

Uzzi is a three-time All-ACC performer (media). The Lithonia (Ga.) product was a first-team selection in 2011 and a second-team selection as a sophomore in 2010.

Uzzi is the first Jacket to earn first-team honors in consecutive years since center Sean Bedford in 2009 and 2010.

Four Jackets were named honorable mention All-ACC (media): junior linebacker Jeremiah Attaochu, junior center Jay Finch, junior offensive lineman Will Jackson and senior running back Orwin Smith. Smith, Attaochu and Finch joined sophomore kick returner Jamal Golden and senior defensive tackle T.J. Barnes on the coaches' honorable mention team. This marked the first season the coaches selected an All-ACC team.

HONORING BURNETT

Georgia Tech paid tribute to former linebacker Julian Burnett in 2012 by rotating Burnett's No. 40 jersey among active players each game.

Burnett was a star linebacker for the Jackets, a leader on and off the field, before suffering a career-ending injury in 2011.

ACADEMIC ALL-ACC

Ray Beno and Will Jackson, a pair of Georgia Tech rising senior offensive linemen, were named to the 2012 Atlantic Coast Conference All-Academic Football Team.

Jackson (Knoxville, Tenn.) is a three-time ACC All-Academic Team selection, while Beno (Newnan, Ga.) made the squad for the first time. Both players are business administration majors.

The team was chosen from a pool of 105 ACC football student-athletes who were nominated by their schools.

THE HISTORY

1892-1931

Georgia Tech's first football team

Campus in 1900

YES, THAT HEISMAN

In 1904 John Heisman took over as Georgia Tech's head football coach. He coached 16 seasons, compiling a remarkable 102-29-7 (.779) record, including four unbeaten campaigns. Heisman's original contract called for him to coach the football and baseball teams for a paltry sum of $2,250 (less $500 for supplies), plus 30 percent of the gate receipts.

Tech did not field a team

FROM TECH QB TO PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE

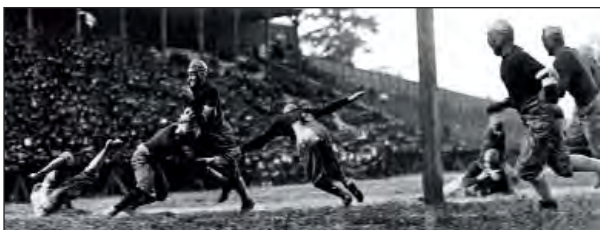

Lt. Leonard Wood was a star quarterback and co-head coach on the 1893 team that played -- and beat -- rival Georgia for the first time, 28-6, in Athens. After the 1894 season Wood was assigned to Ft. McPherson and he went on to win the Congressional Medal of Honor for participating in the Indian wars against Geronimo. He then was the colonel who formed the volunteer brigade called the Rough Riders during the Spanish American War (Teddy Roosevelt gets the credit but was the Lt. Colonel under Wood). He later went to Washington when Roosevelt became President and served in a variety of roles, including Army Chief of Staff. In 1920, he unsuccessfully ran as a Republican for U.S. President.

From 1908-11, home games were played at Ponce de Leon Park

TECH'S FIRST UNBEATEN TEAM

Georgia Tech's first unbeaten team was in 1901. After going winless from 1897-1900, the Yellow Jackets went 4-0-1 in 1901, shutting out four opponents and tying Furman, 5-5.

Jim Preas

GEORGIA TECH 222, CUMBERLAND 0

The most lopsided game of all time happened in Atlanta on Oct. 7, 1916. The previous spring, Cumberland's baseball team had trounced Tech. Cumberland University was located in Lebanon, Tenn., and the Cumberland squad was actually comprised of professional players from nearby Nashville. Georgia Tech head coach John Heisman was not amused, and the Tech students and alumni howled for revenge, so Heisman offered the Bulldogs a $500 guarantee to come to Atlanta for a football game. In the game, Tech scored 32 touchdowns, averaged 3.8 points per minute, carried the ball for 978 yards, and never threw a pass. Cumberland, since it was losing yardage faster than it was gaining real estate, began to kick the football back to the Jackets immediately after Tech kicked off to them. Amazingly, neither team made a first down in the game because Tech scored within four downs on every possession. All-American Everett Strupper led Tech with six touchdowns.

Grant Field was constructed

DOMINANT

The 1917 Yellow Jacket team claimed a share of Tech's first national championship. Tech went a perfect 9-0, outscoring opponents by a combined score of 491-17.

WRONG WAY RIEGELS

The most stunning play in Rose Bowl history propelled Georgia Tech to its first bowl victory when Roy Riegels' infamous Wrong Way Run turned out right as the Rambling Wreck beat California, 8-7, in the 1929 Rose Bowl. Early in the second quarter, with the score tied 0-0, Tech half-back Stumpy Thomason was hit by the Golden Bears' Benny Lom. He fumbled around the Tech 35-yard line, and Riegels scooped up the bouncing ball. He got a good block from a teammate, slipped off a tackler and spun around. But something was wrong. "Stop, Roy! You're running the wrong way," yelled Lom. Riegels thought the speedier Lom was asking for a lateral. At the 10-yard line, Lom grabbed Riegels, but Riegels shook him loose. Finally, at the one-yard line, Lom pulled Riegels down, but not before a 64-yard run into immortality. California still had the ball. On the first play, the Golden Bears attempted to punt the ball out of the end zone with Riegels snapping to Lom. However, Tech's Vance Maree blocked the punt, which rolled out of bounds for a safety. Both teams traded touchdowns in the second half, and Tech eventually prevailed, 8-7, in one of the strangest games ever played. Tech's Rose Bowl win capped a perfect 10-0 season, the first undefeated season for head coach William Alexander, and the Rambling Wreck captured its second national title.

William Alexander was Tech's head coach for 25 seasons, from 1920 to 1944.

1936: FIRST NIGHT GAME

The first night game in Georgia Tech football history came on Sept. 26, 1936. The Yellow Jackets trounced visiting Presbyterian, 55-0, under the lights. Ever since, Grant Field / Bobby Dodd Stadium has been considered one of the top night-game atmospheres in all of college football.

CLINT CASTLEBERRY

The only retired jersey in Georgia Tech's storied football history is the No. 19 worn by running back Clint Castleberry in 1942. Though just a freshman, he finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting as he led Tech to a 9-2 record, highlighted by historic victories at Notre Dame and Navy and capped by a berth in the Cotton Bowl. Just weeks later, he enlisted in the U.S. Army, and on Nov. 7, 1944, his plane disappeared.

For one fleeting season in 1942, Clint Castleberry blazed across the football field like a 'crazed jackrabbit.' Some said he could have been the greatest Tech player in history, if it weren't for World War II and a plane that disappeared off the West African coast without a trace.

He flashed across the fields at Notre Dame and Navy that fall of '42, leading Georgia Tech's shocking onslaughts, while Sir Bernard Montgomery flashed across North Africa in pursuit of Erwin Rommel, and the Russians made their goal-line stand at Stalingrad.

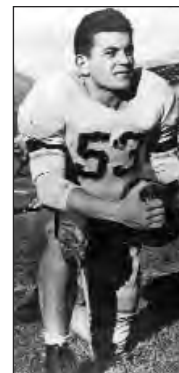

He had played only one college football game when Notre Dame scout Wayne Millner warned coach Frank Leahy that "the most dangerous runner in America" would invade South Bend.

As a freshman, he finished third in the Heisman Trophy balloting. And then he was gone.

CONFERENCE RE-ALIGNMENT

In 1933 Georgia Tech left the Southern Conference to join the Southeastern Conference. The Yellow Jackets played in the SEC until 1963, winning or sharing five league titles.

ORANGE YOU GLAD

Following the 1939 season, Georgia Tech made the first of five appearances in the Orange Bowl, upsetting Missouri 21-7 on Jan. 1, 1940.

SWEET AS SUGAR

The 8-3 record posted by the 1943 Tech team doesn't give justice to one of the great seasons in Yellow Jacket history. Heading into November with a 3-3 record, Tech reeled off wins over LSU, Tulane, Clemson and a 48-0 win over Georgia to win the SEC championship. A month later, the Jackets beat Tulsa in the Sugar Bowl, becoming the first team to play in all four major bowls (Sugar, Rose, Cotton, Orange).

THE DODD ERA BEGINS

Legendary coach Bobby Dodd took over as head coach in 1945 and went on to coach 22 seasons. He compiled a record of 165-64-8 (.713). Dodd won two SEC championships and one national title. Dodd is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame as both a player and coach.

UNDEFEATED NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Bobby Dodd's 1952 team finished a perfect 12-0, including a win over 7th-ranked and previously undefeated Ole Miss in the Sugar Bowl. Tech, which shared the national crown with Michigan State, shutout four opponents, beat 6th-ranked Duke and 12th-ranked Alabama.

The 1952 team included six All-Americans: Pete Brown, Leon Harde-man, Buck Martin, Hal Miller, Bobby Moorhead and George Morris.

ALMOST PERFECT

The 1956 team was nearly perfect, going 10-1, losing only to Tennessee (6-0). Tech beat Pittsburgh in the Gator Bowl (trophy at left).

HUGE WIN

On Nov. 17, 1962, Georgia Tech beat Bear Bryant's No. 1-ranked Alabama team, 7-6. Dodd and the Jackets celebrate below.

REMARKABLE BOWL RUN

From 1951-55, Georgia Tech played in five consecutive major bowls -- Orange (1951), Sugar (1952, 1953, 1955) and Cotton (1954).

HEISMAN RUNNER-UP

In 1963, Georgia Tech quarterback Billy Lothridge was first team All-American and finished second in the voting for the Heisman Trophy. Lothridge also handled kicking and punting for the Yellow Jackets. Tech finished 7-3 in '63, defeating Florida, Clemson, Tennessee, Florida State and Georgia.

BREAKING BARRIERS

Eddie McAshan, the son of a Gainesville (Fla.) mortician, became the first African-American to start at quarterback for a major Southeastern university. McAshan was Tech's starter in 1970, 1971 and 1972.

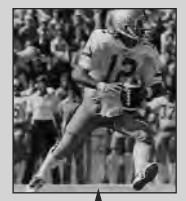

Following the 1963 season, Tech left the SEC and played as an independent until joining the ACC in 1979.

1972-2012

NO PASSES, BIG WIN

Georgia Tech, running the wishbone behind quarterback Gary Lanier, beat 11th-ranked Notre Dame 23-14 despite not attempting a single pass.

IVERY'S 356 YARDS SETS RECORD

With temperatures in the 20s, the wind chill at zero, and with an agitated stomach that nearly sidelined him, Georgia Tech tailback Eddie Lee Ivery made college football history on Nov. 20, 1978 at Air Force.

On 26 rushes, Ivery gained 356 yards, breaking an NCAA record, on a field that required de-snowing by a street sweeper twice before the game.

Complicating Ivery's plight was his stomach. After a nifty reversal of direction, which resulted in a 73-yard TD run in the second quarter giving Tech a 14-0 lead, Ivery was on the sidelines doubled over, vomiting and in obvious pain.

At halftime, Ivery had 122 yards on 12 carries. An 80-yard TD run with 6:08 left in the third quarter gave him 240 yards and broke Brent Cunningham's school record of 217 yards set in 1970.

With 10:25 left, Ivery scored on a 57-yard run, giving him 309 yards and putting him within 41 yards of the NCAA record of 350 by Michigan State's Eric Allen vs. Purdue in 1971.

After an Air Force drive fizzled, Ivery ran for 13 yards, then for another 13. Adding to the drama, Ivery's stomach began to churn again, to the extent he had to leave the game. His replacement, Ray Friday, shocked everyone by bolting 66 yards up the middle for his second touchdown of the day.

When LB Henry Johnson intercepted a Falcon pass, Ivery had his chance. He trotted back onto the field and rushed 21 yards with his first carry, giving him the record.

MAJOR UPSETS

In 1980, Bill Curry's first season as head coach, Tech went just 1-9-1. However, the Yellow Jackets' tie (3-3) came against No. 1-ranked Notre Dame. The following year, the Jackets went just 1-10, but the lone victory was a 24-21 win vs. 4th-ranked Alabama in Birmingham.

Gary Lee's TD helped Tech win at 18th-ranked Georgia, 35-18.

THE RHINOS

Randy Rhino was a three-time All-American (1972-74). Randy was the second of three generations of Rhinos to play at Tech.

Chappell Rhino (1950-52), Danny (1974-76) and Kelley (1999-02) all wore the Gold and White.

TECH JOINS THE ACC

Although Tech first joined the Atlantic Coast Conference in 1979, the Yellow Jackets first competed for the football championship in 1983.

MID-80s TURNAROUND

In 1985, Georgia Tech went 9-2-1 and beat Michigan State in the All-American Bowl -- the Jackets' first bowl win in 15 years. Tech had gone the previous six years with six or less wins.

1990 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Georgia Tech moved into the Top 25 for the first time in 1990 after it beat 25th-ranked South Carolina to improve to 3-0. Two weeks later, the Jackets knocked off 15th-ranked Clemson to improve to 5-0. Tech moved into the national championship conversation in early November when Scott Sisson's field goal with seven seconds remaining gave the Yellow Jackets a memorable 41-38 win at No. 1 Virginia. Tech closed the regular season by winning on the road against rival Georgia, 41-23, setting the stage for a 45-21 win over Nebraska in the Citrus Bowl. The following day, Tech learned it shared the national title with Colorado.

ACC CHAMPIONS

Georgia Tech finished 7-1 in the ACC, earning a share of the league title with Florida State. Tech finished 10-2 overall, beat Georgia (21-19) and knocked off Notre Dame in the Toyota Gator Bowl.

A STORM & A STREAK

The 2000 season opener was cancelled because of a storm at Virginia Tech, but the Jackets won their final seven regular season games including a win in Athens between the hedges.

MEGATRON BREAKS OUT

As a junior, Calvin Johnson was one of college football player's most dominant players. He hauled in 76 passes for a school record 1,202 yards and 15 touchdowns. Johnson led the Yellow Jackets to an ACC Coastal Division crown with a 7-1 league mark. Johnson was the second overall pick in the '07 NFL draft by the Detroit Lions.

THE JOHNSON ERA BEGINS WITH A BANG

The experts predicted Paul Johnson's first season to be a struggle. All Tech did was win nine games and finish tied for first in the ACC's Coastal Division. Along the way, Johnson and his spread option offense won on the road at Clemson, beat Florida State and Miami at home, then closed the regular season with a memorable 45-42 win at rival Georgia after trailing by 16 points.

THE GEORGE O'LEARY ERA

George O'Leary went 18-16 in his first three seasons, but went on to win at least eight games every year from 1998-2001 and played in five bowls.

TECH 51, UGA 48

Luke Mangel's field goal in overtime gave Tech an unforgettable 51-48 win over Georgia. The Jacket fans went nuts and carried Joe Hamilton (right) on their shoulders.

Joe Hamilton finished second in the Heisman Trophy race and won the Davey O'Brien Award.

NIGHT GAMES ON THE FLATS

Since 1991, Georgia Tech has played in an ESPN Thursday night game 25 times, including this game vs. Maryland in 2003.

A HELLUVA YEAR

A remarkable month of November -- wins over Mississippi State, Florida State, 4th-ranked Virginia Tech, Virginia and Vanderbilt -- helped Tech win the ACC Coastal Division and a berth into the FedEx Orange Bowl. Joshua Nesbitt (right) became the most prolific rushing quarterback in ACC history.

MEMORABLE GAMES IN TECH HISTORY

The Cumberland Game

On Oct. 17, 1916, John Heisman's team crushed Cumberland College 22-0 in the most lopsided and highest-scoring game in college football history.

The 1929 Rose Bowl

Cal's Roy Riegels ran the wrong way, Tech won 8-7 and claimed its second national championship.

1942: Georgia Tech 13, Notre Dame 6

Tech finally won at Notre Dame for the first time in eight tries, 13-6. Freshman phenom Clint Castleberry threw a touchdown pass in his only season on the Flats, before dying while piloting a plane during World War II.

1949: Georgia Tech 7, Georgia 6

Georgia Tech 7, Georgia 6, the Grant Field victory that started "The Drought," Bobby Dodd's eight-year mastery of Georgia.

1952 Orange Bowl

Georgia Tech 17, Baylor 14. Pepper Rodgers' last-second field goal gave the Jackets an Orange Bowl comeback win over Baylor and an 11-0-1 season.

1952: Georgia Tech 7, Alabama 3

In the most exciting game, at that time, in Tech annals, Jakie Rudolph's "$125,000 tackle" of Bobby Marlow helped preserve the victory, earned Tech a Sugar Bowl bid (and the $125,000 payout) but also preserved the Jackets' 12-0 season and the Institute's third national title.

1962: Georgia Tech 7, Alabama 6

Another epic Grant Field win over Alabama, one Dodd called "my greatest victory." Mike McNames scored Tech's only touchdown and made a game-saving tackle to upset Bear Bryant's unbeaten, No. 1 defending national champs.

1972 Liberty Bowl

Georgia Tech 31, Iowa State 30, in the Liberty Bowl. In Memphis, backup quarterback Jim Stevens -- playing for the suspended Eddie McAshan -- threw for 157 yards and 3 TDs and was named the MVP.

1976: Georgia Tech 23, Notre Dame 14

In the "Passless Upset," the Jackets -- with freshman QB Gary Lanier running Pepper Rodgers' option to perfection -- didn't throw a pass in shocking the Irish.

1978: The Eddie Lee Ivey Game

Georgia Tech 42, Air Force 21. On the frozen tundra in Colorado Springs, Eddie Lee Ivey ran wild for 356 yards, breaking the NCAA single-game rushing record.

1980: Georgia Tech 3, Notre Dame 3

Bill Curry's first team as head coach of the Jackets stunned the unbeaten, No. 1 Irish and nearly beat them before a late, tying field goal.

1984: Georgia Tech 35, Georgia 18

In Athens, this was Bill Curry's turnaround game for the program, one that ended a six-game losing streak to UGA.

1985 All-American Bowl

Georgia Tech 17, Michigan State 14. In the All-American Bowl in Legion Field, Tech prevailed behind its great Black Watch defense and emergency starting QB Todd Rampley.

Coach Bill Fulcher gets a ride after a 1972 Liberty Bowl win.

1989: Georgia Tech 33, Georgia 22

Jerry Mays ran for 207 yards to help complete a remarkable 7-4 Georgia Tech turnaround after an 0-3 start.

1990: Georgia Tech 21, Clemson 19

In one of the many thrilling, physical battles in this rivalry, this stamped Tech as a legitimate national title contender.

1990: Georgia Tech 41, Virginia 38

In Charlottesville, in likely the most significant victory in Tech annals, the Jackets staged a phenomenal comeback against No. 1 Virginia's potent offense. Shawn Jones and William Bell led the resurgence, and Scott Sisson's field goal with 7 seconds left stunned UVA and set off a wild celebration back on The Flats.

QB Shawn Jones led the comeback vs. No. 1 Virginia in 1990.

1991 Citrus Bowl

Georgia Tech 45, Nebraska 21. In the Citrus Bowl in Orlando, Tech toyed with the Huskers. Behind Jones and Bell once again, the Jackets completed an 11-0-1 season and won the UPI Coaches National Championship the next day by one point in the final poll.

1998: Georgia Tech 41, Virginia 38

In another 41-38 thriller, this one in Atlanta, Dez White caught six passes for a school record 243 yards -- the last 54 coming on the game-winning catch to upset No. 6 UVA.

1998: Georgia Tech 21, Georgia 19

In Athens, Brad Chambers' 35-yard field goal in the final seconds ended a seven-game losing streak to UGA.

1999 Gator Bowl

Georgia Tech 35, Notre Dame 28. In the Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, White and Joe Hamilton (who threw three TD passes and caught one himself) were co-MVPs, and gave Tech its first 10-win season since 1990 and a final ranking of No. 9.

1999: Georgia Tech 51, Georgia 48 (ot)

In one of the most thrilling game in Bobby Dodd Stadium annals, Joe Hamilton's last home game was triumphant. Luke Manget's second-chance, OT field goal sent Tech fans into euphoria. Many of them carried Hamilton -- who was second in the Heisman Trophy voting that season -- on their shoulders and around the stadium.

2003: Georgia Tech 17, Auburn 3

In the first game in newly-expanded and renovated Bobby Dodd Stadium, a sellout crowd of 55,000 roared as freshman QB Reggie Ball passed for one touchdown and set up two other scores. The crowd later stormed the field and tore down the goal posts.

2004 Humanitarian Bowl

Georgia Tech 52, Tulsa 10. In the Humanitarian Bowl in frigid Boise, Idaho, P.J. Daniels ran for an NCAA bowl-record 307 yards and four touchdowns -- despite playing little in the fourth quarter.

2004: Georgia Tech 28, Clemson 24

In another spine tingler against the Tigers, this one in Death Valley, freshman and eventual ACC Rookie of the Year Calvin Johnson caught two of his three TD receptions in the final 1:50 -- the game-winner from Ball with five seconds left.

2005: Georgia Tech 14, Miami 10

In an upset of the No. 3 Hurricanes, Tashard Choice played for the injured Daniels and was superb. As was the Tech's resolute defense.

2006: Georgia Tech 38, Virginia Tech 27

A year after losing 51-7 in Blacksburg, Tech returned, got a quick start and two first-quarter TD catches from Johnson to win, get revenge and seize control of the ACC's Coastal Division.

2007: Georgia Tech 33, Notre Dame 3

In South Bend, the Yellow Jackets opened the season by handing the Fighting Irish one of their most embarrassing home losses.

2008: Georgia Tech 31, Florida State 28

The Yellow Jackets' first win over the Seminoles since 1975 was decided when true freshman Rashaad Reid recovered FSU fumble in the end zone in final minute.

True freshman Rashaad Reid's fumble recovery in the end zone sealed Tech's win over Florida State in 2008.

2008: Georgia Tech 41, Miami 23

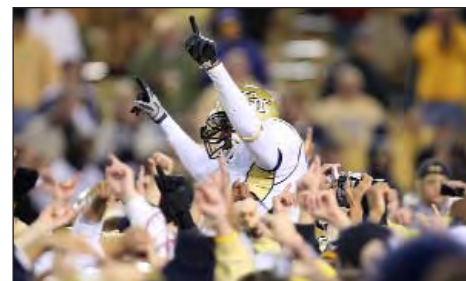

In Atlanta, the Yellow Jackets flexed offensive muscle with nationally-televvised win over the 23rd-ranked Hurricanes in a "White-Out" at Bobby Dodd Stadium

2008: Georgia Tech 45, Georgia 42

In Athens, Paul Johnson's first Yellow Jacket team overcame 26-12 halftime deficit to break seven-year skid against a Bulldog team that was ranked No. 1 in the preseason. Freshman Roddy Jones ran for 214 yards.

2009: Georgia Tech 28, Virginia Tech 23

Tech's first win at home against a top-five ranked team since 1962. The fans stormed the field and tore down the goal posts in the north end zone.

Fans stormed the field after beating Virginia Tech in '09.

2009 ACC Championship Game

Georgia Tech 39, Clemson 34 (ACC Championship Game at Tampa) A Yellow Jacket win that has been vacated, but did send Tech to the FedEx Orange Bowl.

2012: Georgia Tech 68, North Carolina 50

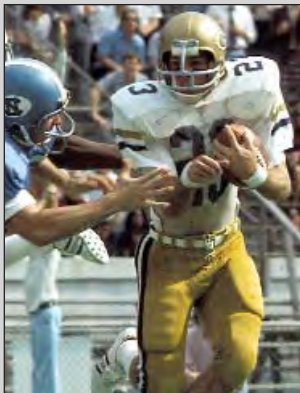

In the highest-scoring game in ACC history, visiting Georgia Tech produced 588 yards of total offense, including 380 rushing yards, and Jamal Golden returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown.

CoSIDA Academic All-America Hall of Fame

WADE MITCHELL

Inducted in 1996

The Verizon Academic All-America Hall of Fame recognizes former Academic All-America student-athletes who graduated at least 10 years ago and have gone on to great success after athletics. Wade Mitchell became the first Georgia Tech graduate to be inducted in 1996. An Academic All-America in 1955, the former standout quarter-back and safety went on to become a prominent Atlanta banking executive.

ALL-TIME HEAD COACHES

John Heisman

Bill Curry

Bobby Ross

Paul Johnson is the 12th full-time football coach in Georgia Tech history. Prior to 1904, when John Heisman became the school's first permanent head coach, the team was "coached" by professors, interested townspeople or one of the players.

Professor Ernest E. West, a Naval College graduate, directed Tech's first football team in 1892. In 1893 and '94, the squad was coached by volunteers Frank O. Spain, a Mathematics professor, and Lt. Leonard Wood (who later became famous as the colonel in command of Roosevelt's Rough Riders and as Governor General of Cuba), then stationed at Ft. McPherson in Atlanta. The rules were rather lax in those days, so Spain and Wood also played on the team.

The next volunteer coach of record was R.B. "Cow" Nalley in 1898, "Mr. Collier" in 1899, Dr. Cyrus W. Strickler in 1901, and John McKee in 1902.

JOHN HEISMAN 1904-1919

- College Football Hall of Fame
- Tech's first full-time head coach
- The first paid coach in the country with a salary of $2,250 plus 30 percent of the gate
- Led Georgia Tech to its first national title in 1917 with a 9-0 record
- Coached the most-lopsided game in history in Georgia Tech's 222-0 thrashing of Cumberland on Oct. 7, 1916
- Coached at Oberlin College, Buchtel (later Akron), Auburn and Clemson before coming to Tech; moved to Penn., Washington & Jefferson and then Rice after leaving Atlanta
- Served as Director of Athletics for the Downtown Athletic Club in New York from 1926 until his death in 1936

WILLIAM ALEXANDER 1920-1944

- Member of College Football Hall of Fame
- Led Tech to 1928 national title, which was capped by a victory in the 1929 Rose Bowl
- Guided Tech to eight conference titles and coached eight all-America players
- 1942 National Coach of the Year (AFCA)
- Spent his entire career at Georgia Tech, also serving as an assistant coach (1912-19) and athletics director (1920-50)

BOBBY DODD 1945-1966

- Member of College Football Hall of Fame as a player and as a coach
- Guided Tech to a 31-game winning streak from 1951-53, including a perfect 12-0 season and national title in 1952
- Posted a 9-4 record in bowl games, including eight straight wins
- Enjoyed a 57-year career at Tech as assistant coach (1931-44), head coach, athletic director (1950-76) and alumni association consultant until his death at age 79 on June 21, 1988

Series Notes

Brigham Young leads the series after a 41-17 win at Georgia Tech in 2012... the Yellow Jackets and Cougars will meet in Provo for just the second time, the first time since opening the 2003 season on a Thursday night (BYU won the game, 24-13)... Tech is just 1-4 against teams from Utah, including a loss the Utah Utes in the 2011 Sun Bowl... Jacket head coach Paul Johnson is 0-1 all-time vs. BYU... both teams are coming off 2012 bowl victories and both beat teams from California in the process (Tech beat USC in the Sun Bowl, BYU topped San Diego State in the Poinsettia Bowl)... Cougar strength and conditioning coach Jay Omer previously worked eight years at Georgia Tech, beginning in 1993.

Series Notes

Georgia Tech will play on the road against Clemson for the second straight year... Clemson has won the last two meetings in Death Valley... the two teams have split the last eight meetings in Death Valley... the Tigers have won two of the last three meetings, but Tech has won five of the last seven... the Yellow Jackets and Tigers will meet for the sixth time in five seasons including a date in the 2009 ACC Championship Game... Tech has played only Georgia (107 meetings), Auburn (92) and Duke (80) more often than Clemson... the two teams have met at least once each year since 1983... the two teams first met on the gridiron in 1898 -- a 23-0 Clemson win played in Augusta, Ga... from 1905-14 the Jackets and Tigers met every year on Thanksgiving Day... Georgia Tech head coach Paul Johnson is 4-2 all-time against Clemson, including the '09 championship game which was vacated and does not count in Johnson's record... Clemson coach Dabo Swinney's first game as the Tigers' head coach was a 21-17 loss to Tech in 2008... Clemson athletic director Dan Radakovich previously worked in the same capacity at Georgia Tech.

Series Notes

With the all-time series tied 17-17-1, the Georgia Tech-Virginia series is the closest in the ACC... overall, Tech has won three of the last four, but the two teams have split the last six meetings... the Yellow Jackets are just 3-10-1 against the Cavaliers in Charlottesville... Tech's win at UVA in 2009 marked its first win in Scott Stadium since 1990... the two teams have met every season since 1982... one of Tech's all-time greatest victories was a 41-38 win over Virginia in Charlottesville in 1990 when the Cavaliers were ranked No. 1 nationally... the Jackets went on to win a share of the national championship... the two teams first met on the gridiron in 1965... Georgia Tech won the first six meetings... Tech head coach Paul Johnson is 3-2 all-time vs. Virginia... Tech offensive line coach Mike Sewak is a 1981 Virginia grad and played three years for the Cavaliers.

Georgia Tech-Virginia Tech has grown into one of the ACC's top rivalries.

Series Notes

Virginia Tech and Georgia Tech remain the only two teams to represent the Coastal Division in the ACC Championship Game since the event began in 2005... Georgia Tech is 2-3 against Virginia Tech at Grant Field... overall, the Hokies have won three straight in the series and five of the last six... the Yellow Jackets only win during that stretch was a 28-23 win over 4th-ranked Virginia Tech in 2009... 20-17 has been the final score in two significant meetings... the Hokies beat Tech 20-17 in 2008, handing Paul Johnson his first loss as Georgia Tech's head coach... Virginia Tech won last year's meeting, 20-17 in overtime, in a nationally-televised game played on Labor Day evening... this will be the 11th meeting between the two teams, the sixth played on a day other than Saturday... the first meeting between the Jackets and Hokies came in 1990, a 6-3 Georgia Tech win in which Virginia Tech nearly spoiled the Jackets' run to a share of the national championship... Georgia Tech coach Paul Johnson is 1-4 all-time vs. Virginia Tech... Hokies coach Frank Beamer has been on the sidelines for all 10 previous Georgia Tech-Virginia Tech games.
